Colored Pictures At Meeting on Monday

The story of lumbering was shown in colored moving pictures at the meeting of the Newton Rotary Club Monday at the Brae Burn Country Club, West Newton. The film showed the reforestation program which follows the cutting of the trees, processing of the lumber and steps taken to prevent forest fires. Some of the by-products of the industry were shown, including the making of logs for fireplaces from sawdust under 150,000 pounds of pressure. Richard Warren of Norwood, representative of the Western Lumber Company, was the narrator.

Reservation cards for the convention of Rotary International to be held in Toronto in June were distributed. Group singing was led by Larry Frederick, with Lou Haffermehl at the piano. President Charles Meeker conducted the meeting and the program was arranged by Matthew F. Ruane.

Highway Safety Record Rewarded

A certificate of merit was presented to Mayor Paul M. Goddard by Governor Saltonstall Friday in recognition of the city's highway safety record in 1941 at the 21st annual Massachusetts Safety Conference at the Hotel Statler.

The award was made because Newton won first place in its population class last year. The city will be permitted to retain possession of the elaborate trophy which it won for the year 1940.

NEWTON BLACKOUT HIGHLY EFFECTIVE

ARP System Completely Mobilized As 5000 Members Answer "Alert"

Realistic Touch Given Blackout As Planes Fly Over City—Report Center Manned by Officials

Newton underwent its second practice blackout Tuesday night, and both the signal system and the blackout were pronounced highly effective by A. R. P. officials.

The city's A. R. P. system was completely mobilized for the occasion, with its 5,000 members on the alert, including air wardens, auxiliary firemen and police, traffic, demolition and repair units, nurses, physicians and boy scouts serving as couriers and messengers. The Report Center was fully manned and the warnings were issued precisely by the same procedure that would be followed in a real air raid.

Planes Fly Over City

A realistic touch was added to the blackout by the droning of airplane motors overhead followed by the glare of giant searchlights. The lone arrest of the blackout period was made a few minutes before it ended when a man was taken into custody on a drunkenness charge in Nonantum by Inspector Joseph B. Lyons and Patrolman William Burke.

Some of the auxiliary policemen reported that they had difficulty occasionally in stopping motorists and complaints were lodged against several who proved recalcitrant. As a rule, however, residents and motorists showed a spirit of full cooperation. There were few incidents of neglect to extinguish lights.

A Nonantum resident who was unaware that plants working on defense orders were not required to black out called police headquarters and complained that the Raytheon Production Corporation on Chappin st. had failed to turn out the factory lights.

Messenger Halted

The first telephone call received at police headquarters was from an auxiliary policeman who sought advice about a problem that he had encountered. He said he stopped a car driven by a telegraph messenger and the latter showed him a pass signed by the head of the Boston A. R. P. He said he informed the messenger that the pass was not valid in Newton, but he permitted him to fence plant nearby, but forced him to wait until the end of the blackout before proceeding to deliver the others.

During the blackout the police were concerned with the investigation of a hit-and-run accident that occurred about 8:45 p. m. The victim of the accident, which occurred at Newton Corner, came to police headquarters and reported the registration number of the car that had struck the rear of his machine. The alleged operator of the hit-and-run car was located at his home in Wellesley, but he denied that he had been involved in the accident.

To Be Prosecuted

He was told to come to Newton police headquarters after the blackout and when he arrived he was immediately identified by the driver of the car that was struck.

Several calls were received by the police before the blackout from residents who seemed impatient to learn when the test was to start.

The police traffic division car, containing Chief Michael T. Hughes, Sergeant Thomas J. Burke, Inspector William H. Dowling and Deputy Commissioner Henry E. Goodnough of the auxiliary police, patrolled the city during the blackout. The officials reported that a surprisingly small number of cars had to be halted on the streets when the sirens sounded. They found that only about 15 cars were stopped along the entire length of the Worcester turnpike in Newton.

Reports Loss of Copper Wire Bale

The loss of a 200 lb. bale of copper wire from a truck which he was driving for Grant's Express was reported to the police on Monday night by Fred Flaherty. The bale, which was addressed to the Western Electric Company in Watertown contained used copper wire, and the driver told the police he thought it must have fallen from the truck somewhere between Newton Centre and Newton Corner about 11 p. m. A search was made along the route over which the truck traveled but no trace was found of the missing bale.

East Milton Man Dies of Injuries

Munn received injuries to his head and body.

Salvage Drive for Waste Material Gets Underway Here Tuesday Evening

Public and Private Survey To Unearth All Metal, Rubber, Paper and Rags Started by Local Committee

The salvage drive got under way in Newton Tuesday following a meeting of the salvage committee at which plans were made for public and private surveys to unearth all available waste metal, rubber, paper and rags.

Residents will be advised that they may dispose of waste material in two ways. If they desire to sell the material, they may call the Chamber of Commerce office and they will be given the name of a junk dealer who will call at their homes. If they want to give the material away, the Newton Thrift Center will accept the contributions of waste material.

Not A City Enterprise

Officials pointed out that it is not a city enterprise but the city will join the drive by carrying on its own survey to seek out all waste material that can be found on city property. For this purpose, a WPA project will be carried on to find all hidden sources of desirable material, such as abandoned gas light poles and other public property no longer used. The survey will include abandoned buildings which may contain considerable metal.

In addition to those being immunized by Dr. Morris, many children are undergoing the necessary treatment by private physicians, as a result of the notices sent to parents by the Health Department.

The important place of women in shaping Ireland was outlined by Rev. John E. On display was a number of ancient manuscripts and books which will demonstrate how the Irish transmitted the knowledge of the past. Two manuscript copies of Irish poems and history, recently acquired, were contrasted with the modern productions.

Claim That Money Spent For New Drain Wasted Denied at Meeting on Thursday

Contention Voiced by Alderman Temperley Is Emphatically Refuted By Other Aldermen

A charge that the city had wasted $1500 by building a drain on Winter st., Newton Upper Falls, because there already was a drain in the street was emphatically refuted by several members of the Board of Aldermen Thursday night on the grounds that the existing drain was "not worthy of the name."

The contention that the money had been wasted was voiced by Alderman John Temperley. He asserted that after the board had appropriated the funds at the preceding meeting he made an investigation and was surprised to find that the work had been started before the appropriation was made and discovered that his hunch that there was already a drain in the street was correct.

"The work was in progress for about a week," he said. "The money was spent before the appropriation was passed. Someone exceeded his authority. As for the rest, I am no technician, but I can see."

President Charles G. Floyd informed the board that as acting mayor last week he had received a demand from Alderman Temperley last Saturday that he issue a restraining order to halt the work on the new drain, because of the presence of an old drain in the street.

Not Worthy of Name

President Floyd thereupon made an investigation and was informed there was "no drain there worthy of the name" and that "it would be poor engineering to connect with the old drain." He said he therefore refused to halt the work.

Alderman Joseph B. Jamieson, vice-president and chairman of the public works committee, who was the first to reply to Temperley's charge, said at the outset, "My face is not red." He explained that the work on the drain was done by authority of an appropriation in the budget for "new drains and catch basins" and that the expenditure of the funds was therefore proper. He said that the additional appropriation of $1600 was made because the cost was found to be "more extensive."

Alderman George E. Rawson, who was acting chairman of public works when the appropriation was passed, said that the city had two capable officials in the city engineer and street commissioner. "They assured us that there was no drain worthy of the name on Winter st., which could be used for the purpose."

"I was assured at the time that there was no drain at all on the street," Temperley retorted. "Not that there was one there not worthy of the name, but that there was no drain worthy of the name."

"In my judgment the money was wasted and I stand by my statement," he declared. "I am not satisfied yet that there was no drain worthy of our money."

Jamieson replied that he had proof that the street commissioner and the city engineer knew that there was a drain in the street, but had investigated and found some of the catch basins full to the top with gravel. "They dug it up in three places and found nothing but dry walls with a slab of stone over it," he asserted. He added that one of the residents on the street had remarked that he was glad that a new drain was being built because the old drain had caused his cellar to be flooded.

Budget For 1942 Passed By Aldermen As Board Slashes Recommendations of Mayor

Newton to Honor William J. Kerr

A movement to honor William J. Kerr, Newton boy reported by the Navy Department as "missing in action" in the Battle of Java, has been started by city officials. Alderman Eugene A. Cronin has proposed that as a fitting recognition of the sacrifice made by the youth, his name be inscribed on a roll of honor in the War Memorial. Plans are under way to pay a lasting tribute to Newton war heroes.

Kerr, son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel J. Kerr of 36 Chandler pl., Newton Upper Falls, was a member of the crew of the U. S. Gunboat Asheville, reported last week as sunk in the Battle of Java.

Appropriations of $5,397,029.20 Are Approximately $127,000 Less Than 1941-Proposed Bonus Plan Defeated

Budget As Passed Includes Regular Increases in Salaries for Department Heads, Clerks and Supervisory Force—Expect Tax Rate To Be Same

Mayor Paul M. Goddard on Wednesday placed his signature on the 1942 budget for Newton passed last Thursday evening by the Board of Aldermen totalling appropriations of $5,397,029.20. The 1942 budget is approximately $127,000 less than that of 1941. As passed and signed, there was no provision in the budget for any general salary increase for city employees.

The recommendation of Mayor Paul M. Goddard and the finance committee that a five per cent bonus not to exceed $75 be granted each city employee to keep pace with the increased cost of living was rejected by the Newton Board of Aldermen by a vote of 11 to 7 last Thursday when the 1942 city budget was adopted.

The board slashed $72,443 from the budget recommendations of the mayor, exclusive of the sum of $117,000 recommended for the proposed bonus. The budget as finally passed totaled $5,397,029.20, compared with the mayor's recommendations totaling $5,469,472.65. The 1942 budget as passed is approximately $127,000 less than that of 1941.

Chairman Carl F. Schipper, Jr., of the finance committee predicted that the tax rate, which was $28 in 1941, would probably remain unchanged.

For the payment of the proposed bonus of five per cent of the first $1,500 of each employee's salary, the mayor had recommended $110,000 in the general budget and $7,000 in the Water Department budget. The appropriation of these sums was recommended in a majority report of the finance committee.

Presenting a minority report opposing the bonus, Alderman Henderson, a member of the committee, argued that while the proposed bonus was designed to offset the increased cost of living, the city employees had received less pay when the cost of living was higher. He argued that salary increases of 10 per cent had been granted to City Hall employees in 1940 when a salary schedule was adopted and that salary increases granted in the budget passed Thursday night would bring the total increases to between 15 and 20 per cent.

The budget as passed included regular salary increases for many department heads, clerks and members of the supervisory force. Referring to salary increases in the budget, Chairman Schipper said the finance committee had made changes in some instances, in two cases prevailing upon the mayor to recommend raises and in others refusing to approve the increases recommended by the mayor when the proposed increases were found to be not in accordance with the "step-rate schedule."

He said the committee urged that city departments "start training" for the time when it will be necessary to reduce expenditures sharply. He added that the committee would recommend no expenditures this year beyond the sums included in the budget, and warned department heads to keep within their budgets.

In reply to a review demand by Alderman Hoffman that the budget be cut extensively, Schipper pointed out that the greater part of the items, particularly the payroll of about $3,000,000 could not be reduced. The bonded debt payments and welfare and similar items could not be reduced to any great extent, he added. That left a residue of only a little over $1,000,000 which could be pared, he said, and the committee had done as much paring as possible.

In the budget of the "General Department," the board pared off $50 by reducing the recommended item of $250 for Planning Board to $200. The appropriation for insurance of city property was $7,000 to cover 15 school buildings of second class construction, the city infirmary and city boilers. The other items were: Salary of inspectors, $400; salary of registration clerk, $200; auto maintenance, inspector of animals, $200; Memorial Day expense, $500; committee expense, $100; Retirement Board pension fund, $71,051; Retirement board expense fund, $2,250; License Board clerk, $1,352; License Board expense, $100; Stenographic service, Board of Aldermen, $100; secretary, Board of Health meetings, $100.

Executive Dept.

The board made no changes in the Executive Department budget recommended by the mayor. The following items were appropriated: mayor's salary $5,000; salary, clerical assistance, $2,000, increased from $1,750 appropriated last year; salary, temporary clerk, $75; salary messenger, $750; office and miscellaneous expense, $1,200; rifle range expense, $500; audit treasurer and collector, $1,500; dog clinic expense, $1,370. Commenting on the salary increase for clerical assistance, Alderman John Temperley remarked that the city was paying a chemist, graduate of M. I. T., only $1,750. Later in the evening the board granted the employee in question a $300 salary increase upon the mayor's recommendation.

The consideration of the budget of the WPA, the committee defeated, however, after Chairman Schipper of the Finance Committee asserted that the committee had cut the items as much as possible. The $7,000 granted for project material and costs had been reduced to $1,200. His committee from $10,000 recommended by the board would exercise complete control over the WPA reserve fund of $32,750.

The other items passed as recommended by the mayor, were: Salary of sponsor agent, $3,130; investigator, $1,565; janitors, $1,508.67; maintenance of trucks and garage rent, $1,200.

The budget of the Municipal Defense Department was passed as recommended by the mayor. The Accounting Department budget, the board denied an increase recommended by the mayor for one clerk, after the committee reported it was not in accordance with the schedule. Provisions for pensions in this budget were reduced because of the recent death of one retired city laborer and one retired policeman.

The board reduced the salary of the city treasurer and collector to $4,500 from the sum of $5,000 recommended by the mayor. Schipper explained the sum was cut by the committee in accordance with its recommended (Continued on page 8)

The Auburndale Review Club

Mrs. Eldin Lynn of Kingswood rd. was hostess for the Review Club on Tuesday morning, the president, Mrs. James G. Patterson, presiding at the business session at ten o'clock.

Mrs. Philip Chase, who was to have talked on Current Affairs, had been unable to attend.

Representatives from the Canadian Pacific Railway, and by means of motion pictures in sound and color, they took the audience through many of the places in Canada noted either for scenic beauty or their historical value.

From views of their large cities, including Montreal, Ottawa, Quebec and Winnipeg, they changed quickly to views of the beautiful harbors, festival days, with parades and horse racing and rodeos; fishermen landing huge fish for trade; golden fields of wheat being garnered for the markets of the world.

Then the scene changed and views of Alaska and the Yukon were shown, the last frontier, where hundreds lost their lives in the rush for gold. Age-old glaciers were shown, and lofty mountains where venturesome travelers meet for winter sports.

Following these pictures, Miss Helen Calder read a paper on "United States as a Neighbor." As the books from which she quoted were written several years ago when this country was not regarded so favorably, we were pictured as a people who felt above all others, and this attitude was criticized by Canadians generally. Owing to present conditions, it seemed evident, this feeling was not uncommon today.

The club adjourned at noon to meet two weeks later with Mrs. Charles E. Valentine of Wolcott st.

Electricians In Safety Campaign

Newton Members Plan To Attend Convention

"Eliminating Waste with Safe Wiring" is the keynote of the annual spring safety campaign sponsored by the Massachusetts State Association of Master Electricians, which opens April 8th with a two-day convention in Boston. Newton electricians who are members of the Charles River Valley Electrical Contractors Association, which is affiliated with the state organization, are also participating in the drive to prevent waste in co-operation with the national defense program.

Three fundamental ways of preventing waste, resulting from improper handling or use of electrical equipment, are pointed out by Joseph L. Winn, chairman of the convention.

First, prevent electrical fires in the home by maintaining properly installed equipment and wiring. Loose plugs, worn cords, injured wire insulation, blown fuses, overloaded circuits require prompt attention.

Second, avoid shock centers in the home, which can cause loss of life and burns. Avoid electrical equipment in the bathroom. Beware of defective cords and wiring. Do not tamper with electrical outlets and wiring. Do not handle equipment with wet hands.

Third, keep electrical equipment in good order. Do not immerse the appliance in water so the electrical element becomes wet. Do not overheat electrical equipment.

Offer Cosmetic Sets For Ladies

Here is an opportunity for every woman to obtain a complete 15-piece set of famous Constance Bennett Matched Cosmetics.

For several years, Constance Bennett has been distributing her line of cosmetics through nationally-known stores and exclusive shops. Every item is identical in size, quality and content with those sold in leading retail stores throughout the United States at regular retail prices.

Since the inception of this business, Miss Bennett has insisted upon purity and quality in both raw materials and the finished products themselves. And it is only because of her desire to win new friends and patrons for her beauty aids that this "direct to user" campaign is possible.

Every lady attending the West Newton Theatre on Tuesday, April 7th, and every Tuesday for 14 succeeding weeks, who purchases an adult admission ticket will receive one full retail size package of a different beauty aid each week.

Start your 15-piece set of Constance Bennett Matched Cosmetics next Tuesday at the West Newton Theatre.

Newton High School Responds To Call For Increased National War Effort

Wholeheartedly Participating In New Duties and Responsibilities Created by National Crisis

Newton High School is wholeheartedly participating in the new duties and responsibilities which have been created by the present crisis. In the various departments of the school stress is being laid upon topics which the national war effort makes vital. Teachers and pupils are responding to the call for emergency volunteers to fill positions in the defense program.

First Aid Course

Each building in the school is now in charge of a teacher with four assistants. Their duties include caring for the injured in their respective buildings in the case of an air raid. The women in charge are: in building 1, Miss Helen White; in building 2, Miss Maguire; and in building 3, Miss Simon. Each floor is also in charge of a teacher, who has a first aid assistant and two messengers. Miss Simon has general supervision of the first aid set-up.

Forty-three boys are now taking the first aid course being given in the gymnasium once a week in two-hour sessions. These boys are receiving basic training in Red Cross work from Mr. Frank Simmons.

Under the direction of Miss Simon, 25 girls are receiving training in the official Red Cross First Aid Course. The class meets every Monday afternoon from three to five.

After ten lessons those who successfully complete the course will receive certificates. These girls, all juniors, will be able to aid Miss Simon in first aid work next year.

Special Math Course

As its contribution to the nation's war effort the math department is featuring a math course after school for boys who did not elect advanced math for their senior year and who believe that the solid geometry will help them in obtaining a good position in the armed forces of the nation. This course is now in session Tuesdays, Wednesdays, and Thursdays after school. It is given by Mr. Huxley and Mr. Mengedahl. The students attending receive no credit either toward graduation or toward college, but they believe they will be helped by the added knowledge of mathematics.

Projects of Other Courses

In the social studies department many subjects pertaining to Air Raid Precautions and National Defense are now being discussed. Some of these are sabotage, propaganda, discipline, safety, defense needs, and conservation.

Mr. Maxim in an early March issue of the daily bulletin announced that a typing course was to be started for senior boys. Since practically all records of the faculty and school are typewritten, good typists are needed. In the navy a good typist may start as yeoman third class and work rapidly up to yeoman first class. The first meeting of the new typing class took place Monday, March 23. It is intended to teach the pupils the keyboard and the fundamentals of typing.

In the chemistry and physics classes the subjects pertaining to war materials and to aeronautical aviation are being emphasized by the teachers.

The sewing classes have made over 550 arm bands for wardens, messengers and first aiders. Arm bands for those who are to sell defense stamps in the lunchroom have been made by the crafts classes.

Art 10A classes of Miss Ellis have designed posters advertising defense stamps and bonds. These are on exhibit in the library.

Members of the English Department have received a bulletin from Mr. Rinker suggesting methods of class procedure which will render more effective student co-operation in the defense effort.

Conservation Program

A committee of Newton teachers, headed by Mr. Kidger, was formed "to consider ways and means of promoting better understanding and action regarding Conservation of Our Resources as a 'must' in the total war effort for all people." A bulletin offering suggestions under the headings of Conservation of Morale, Ethical Conservation, Conservation of Consumer Goods, and Conservation of Health was issued by the group. Miss Kendrick, Mrs. Kuntz, Mr. Harrington and Mr. Simmons are the other members from the high school.

Red Cross Work

Under the supervision of Miss Rogers sixty-four girls have been doing Red Cross knitting. The group started in January and many girls learned to knit aided by Mrs. Newcomb and Mrs. Benson. Their work is for refugee children. Seventy sets of wristlets and anklets for use on snow suits, and fifty sweaters have been, or are being completed.

At the Red Cross production headquarters fifteen girls take turns working in the afternoons. There are also fifteen boys who help with the rougher work, and two hundred who have volunteered to do so when called upon.

Junior Red Cross Canteen Corps

During the recent vacation, the following girls from the Junior Red Cross Canteen Corps assisted in Canteen in various parts of the city: Marion Davis at the Newton Hospital, Arlene Andrews and Betty McCradden at Newtonville Red Cross headquarters, Arlene Andrews at City Hall on the morning when some draftees left. The following other girls are on the reserve list and will be called for duty when the need arises: Caroline Gentile, Marion Davis, Catherine O'Grady, Constance Libby, Agnes Hingston, Helen Maguire, Pauline Forslimb, and Janice Grover. This Canteen Corps has had pictures taken which are to appear in a future issue of Student Life, a national magazine. Phyllis Walsh has written an article to accompany the pictures. Miss Davis is director of this effort.

Lunch Room and Assembly Hall Instructions

If an air raid alarm should be sounded during lunch time the signal will be given as usual on the bell, but because of the noise in the lunchroom the lights will be flashed on and off, on and off, as an additional signal. The pupils must immediately stop talking and remain absolutely quiet while directions are given by the teacher in charge.

In case there should be an air raid during a sophomore or junior assembly, Mr. Kidger will have charge of evacuating the pupils. Some will remain under the balcony, for this has been pronounced a good shelter, but the others will go into the lunchroom where Mr. Peterson will be ready to receive them. The school has been granted permission from state authorities to use the lunchroom as an air raid shelter.

Teachers' Activities

Many teachers of Newton High School are active in various positions of the defense program. Here are a few:

Miss Maguire drives one day a week for the Metropolitan Boston Chapter of the American Red Cross. She contributes her services, car, and time in the transporting of charity patients and soldiers to and from the hospital.

Miss Curtis is now a captain in the Massachusetts Women's Defense Corps. She has also organized a school in Medford to train wardens.

Lieutenant Leathers is an instructor at the Massachusetts Women's Defense School in Boston. Miss Root is now working 2 hours a week at the Newton District Warning Center which has control of twelve community reporting centers.

Mr. Drury pictures as an auxiliary fireman while Mr. Peterson is taking over duties as an auxiliary policeman. Mr. Peltier and Mr. Peterson are in charge of building 3 at night in case the assembly is being used.

All the pictures are being removed from the corridors to prevent danger from their falling during an air raid. Students of Mr. Taylor's room have a total of $323.65 invested in defense stamps and bonds. The Library Club has sent several thousand copies of the American Marine Library. ... 28 teachers have taken Red Cross courses. ... A project to train ten or twelve volunteers in each building as auxiliary firemen for combatting incendiaries is now under way. ... Ten members of the faculty are on night shifts as wardens for the school at all hours. They were chosen because of their familiarity with the grounds. They are on call at any time during their shifts in case a warning signal is sounded. ... All the students need to know the locations of all their pupils during a raid. ... The emergency squad of twenty boys, under Mr. Simmons reports to the gym as soon as the air raid bell rings. ... 40 boys have answered the call to make model planes to aid in the training of pilots and aircraft spotters. Mr. Willard is in charge of this work.

Another important phase of the defense program is the work of air raid precautions in the school.

Aircraft Project In Newton Schools

Superintendent of Schools, Julius E. Warren announced that the junior high schools are co-operating with great interest in the nation wide project of constructing model airplanes for the United States Navy, Bureau of Aeronautics.

The armed services of the United States need 10,000 solid scale models of each of 50 different types of fighting aircraft, 500,000 in all, and needs them now. The project in Newton calls for 250 planes, 5 of each of the 50 different types.

The models needed for purposes of aircraft recognition training and gunnery sight practice. Beyond that, civilian groups will use the models for public education in aircraft recognition.

These models will be on an exact scale of 1 to 72, and made from aeronautical engineers' drawings. The plane seen at 35 feet is identical with the true airplane seen at just under half a mile. By studying the model through the standard gunnery sight used on aerial gun mounts, the pilot learns only identification but range as well.

Planes will be inspected by an inspection committee before they can be accepted for shipment to training centers.

Superintendent Warren has appointed Mr. Pohman of the John W. Weeks Junior High School, Industrial Arts Department, to serve as local director of the Model Aircraft Project.

Eye Shaped Like Cone

The eye of the chameleon is shaped like an ice cream cone, with a minute pupil at the small end, according to the Better Vision Institute.

Monkeys, Bears

Ursine howlers are monkeys, usually, however, the term ursine denotes the bear.

BELL — CARROLL

MRS. FREDERICK BELL (nee Evelyn Carroll)

Sunday, March 22, Miss Evelyn A. Carroll, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph F. Carroll of 56 South Gate Park, West Newton, was married to Frederick A. Bell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bell of 50 Charlesbank rd., Newton. Rev. John J. Crane, pastor, performed the three o'clock ceremony in St. Bernard's Church, which was followed by a reception at the home of the bride's parents.

The bride wore a princess gown of white satin and lace, a tulle and lace veil from a crown of seed pearls, and carried a shower bouquet of white roses, sweet peas, and an orchid. The maid of honor, Miss Lillian MacMahon, of West Newton, wore a gown of orchid plume, a hat with an ostrich plume and shoulder length tulle veil. She carried jonquills and sweet peas. The bridesmaids, Miss Mildred Murphy, of Watertown, and Miss Ann Cabozzi, of Newton, wore similar orchid gowns and hats and carried snapdragons and sweet peas.

John Bell was his brother's best man and the ushers were Everett MacLean, of Newton, and Arthur Parker, of Chelsea.

The bride was graduated from Newton High School in 1939. Mr. Bell was graduated from Newton High School in 1934. After a wedding trip to New York, Mr. and Mrs. Bell will live in West Newton.

League of Women Voters Meeting

"Do we pay too much for milk?" was the question asked by a group of the Newton League of Women Voters at the regular discussion meeting held on Monday, March 30, at the Newtonville Library.

It was pointed out that any savings to distributors through reductions in delivery necessitated by gas and tire shortages should be passed on to consumers.

Mrs. E. B. Millard, chairman of the meeting, gave some of the background and complications of the milk problem, with emphasis upon the present dangerously decreasing consumption of milk in this area.

A report from the Newton Board of Health on what goes into the price of a quart of milk was given by Mrs. T. R. Pennypacker. Mrs. Clifford G. Casely told of results from a neighborhood survey on the possibilities of combined delivery.

The views of two local dairies on the distribution system had been assembled by Mrs. Victor C. Studley and Mrs. Davis N. Ripley. Mrs. John L. MacNeil reported that one of the local chain stores could sell milk over the counter at 3 to 4 cents a quart less than the present price fixed by the Milk Control Board, with no reduction in income for the farmer.

Lower milk prices and increased consumption, through organized consumer efforts in Washington, D. C. were summarized by Mrs. James T. Rubey.

The meeting on April 6, at the Newtonville Library, will discuss the organization of labor and industry for war. All are welcome.

Nash Sedans Easily Converted Into Emergency Ambulances

Famous for their convertible beds, Nash sedans are now available for wartime action as emergency ambulances.

Thousands of automobiles may be converted quickly into emergency ambulances for use in the event of air raids on U. S. cities because of the love of the American motorist for touring and hunting and fishing in peace.

As the result of the great popularity of its "bedroom" sedan built for its sedans during the last few years so that the rear compartment of the car could utilize simple equipment for installing a six-foot double bed. A stunning full size sedan became a roomy bed room for two in a few minutes.

Now all of these sedans are available for wartime action either with the regular Nash convertible bed equipment or with a special ambulance conversion unit. The latter merely requires installation of a folding track for a regulation roller stretcher, as shown above, and leaves room for an attendant beside the victim. When the regular full-width Nash bed is used, a portable stretcher may simply be slid in on top of it. In either case, only the rear front seat remains undisturbed for passenger use. The car can be converted back readily for conventional use. Conversion either way is said to require only three or four minutes. The equipment here folds up into a compact package, and like the Nash bed equipment, is carried in the luggage compartment.

Hundreds of these cars have already been registered for emergency duty, and their availability in thousands throughout the country is seen as helpful in the solution to an important problem in preparing vulnerable U. S. cities for air raids.

Imported Wines Scarce Due to War

"More and more you will find wines being served in homes all over the country," Mr. Fred S. Moore remarked to a GRAPHIC reporter yesterday. And Mr. Moore should know, because he and his father before him have been in the business of supplying fine wines and liquors to discriminating families since the late nineties. Mr. Moore has conducted Moore's Beverage Shop in Newton Corner since the repeal of prohibition.

"As certified distributors of S. S. Pierce Co. wines and spirits," Mr. Moore continued, "it is our considered opinion that they offer the best in quality and price. Selected by experts with 110 years of public acceptance, the S. S. Pierce Co. label is the symbol of quality and fair dealing."

"War conditions have made it practically impossible to secure many imported wines," Mr. Moore said, "and American wines are increasing in popularity. Domestic wines are now being served at many official residences in Washington. Among the finest of American wines are the products of the House of Old Molyneux. Their wines come from the finest vineyards in California and are within the reach of the most modest purse."

Mr. Moore is the Dean of the Newton Package Store Dealers. He has resided in Newton for many years and has been secretary of the Chestnut Hill Improvement Society for more than a decade.

Newton Auto In Collision Here

On Monday afternoon cars driven by Albert J. Nau of 16 Guyette rd., Cambridge, and Miss Ruth M. Prendergast of 63 Elm st., West Newton, were in a collision at Cherry and Webster sts. West Newton, and Nau's car, which continued a short distance after the collision, struck a beach wagon operated by Edwin C. Foley of 749 Washington st., Newtonville, which was stopped opposite 56 Webster st. Nau, who was injured, told the police that he was proceeding west on Webster st. when his car collided with the Prendergast car which was going in a southerly direction on Cherry st.

Application For Dept. Car Denied

Andrew Prior, Sealer of Weights and Measures in Newton, whose application for a certificate authorizing the purchase of a new car for his department was rejected by the county rationing board at Cambridge, has appealed from the decision of the board. Mr. Prior bases his appeal on the fact that he exercises police powers in the performance of his duties and that under the auto rationing rules he is eligible to purchase a new car for the department. The sum of $750 has been appropriated by the Board of Aldermen for the purchase of the new car with the understanding that the present car be taken in trade.

Given $50 Fine For Drunkenness

Richard H. Slye, 21, of 179 East Main st., Stafford Springs, Conn., was fined $50 in the Newton District Court on Tuesday on a charge of driving while under the influence of liquor and $10 on a charge of drunkenness. He pleaded guilty to both charges, paying $35 on the fines and was given time to pay the balance. Slye was arrested on Monday night after the truck which he was driving struck the rear end of a car driven by John A. McDonald of 776 Huntington ave., Roxbury, on the turnpike near Margaret rd., Newton Highlands, when McDonald slackened his speed to make a left turn.

Berets Not Modern Berets are not a modern novelty as popularly supposed; they were first worn by the ancient Greeks about 2,500 years ago.

A SUCCESSFUL TEST

Newton residents may well take pride in the splendid coverage afforded by the civilian defense organization during the blackout test Tuesday evening. The speed and perfection of mobilization of the personnel of the air raid precaution services prove conclusively that these men and women have been well trained. They have given their time, and indicated willingness to serve in an emergency and deserve the thanks of every resident.

Civilian defense is a vital matter. No one hopes for air raids. They may possibly come. If and when they do Newton will have its well-trained corps of men and women to assist in the protection of life and property.

There is need for increased enrollment in this vital work. There is need that interest shall not lag. All must keep everlastingly at their duties; be prepared should the emergency arise. If all do their part we can minimize the efforts of those who would bring death to our citizens and destruction to our homes.

Letters To The Editor

CONCERNING DOGS

To the Editor of The Graphic, Newton, Mass.

Sir:
Now is the time of year when the pampered pups of Newton realize that they are masters of all they survey from Chestnut Hill to Norumbega Park. Like Constantinople before it had its fabled, Newton is the sanctuary of a multitude of wandering animals of high and low degree whose main aspiration seems to be to escape the inanities of domestic existence by taking to the streets in squads, companies and (will it come to this?) battalions.

In comparison with Newton, the communities of Boston and Brookline are as dogless as Ireland is snakes.

The special characteristic of the Newton dog (and well he knows it) is that his person is sacrosanct, while the human species, obviously of less importance, may be dogmatically with relative impunity. Another strange fact is that, while any given dog may appear to be homeless, he is protected in ambush by a fiercely zealous owner who stands ready behind the curtains to rush out, armed with any weapon, from a shotgun to an air raid sand shovel, should one of those obnoxious animals called pedestrians cast a disparaging eye on the favorite.

Let a Newton dog bite a man, and that of course is not only NOT news, but probably justifiable. (It was to have been expected that the man was doing walking on the street?) and the dog suffers no degree of public obloquy thereby. The procedure is traditional; the man goes to the local hospital for observation and Pasteurization; the latter, thus, under the man's blood may prove hurtful to the dog's health; the former to see if the man has any other criminal tendencies. The dog is perhaps admonished to restrain his playful exuberance, his master is politely, though dogmatically, requested to caution his affectionate little pup, and the dog resumes his carefree amblings. Newton in fact is just a little proud of the high mettle of its blue-ribbon champions.

Bue let a man bite a dog (not that such a sacrilegious deed has ever yet been perpetrated in the annals of the average Newtonian), and the result would be no ordinary news item. There would no doubt be an uprising of angry dog-lovers, demanding the instant immolation of the culprit, or, at the very least, his banishment from the Garden City forever.

Numerous are the Newton streets where women and children of a timorous disposition dare not walk three blocks from home for fear of the Hounds of the Baskevilles—the egregious Norwegian Elkhounds, that murderous Hun of the dog world, the unspeakable Chow, or the German Shepherd dog who lives up to his name by making pedestrians look sheepish.

All these facts tend to explain why the ancient and honorable custom of walking has fallen into desuetude in Newton. It may be true that the average Newtonian is still capable of walking five blocks without collapsing, but the theory has had no fair test in recent years.

After all, though the writer comes from uncultured Brooklyn, N. Y., where the prevalence of "Curb Your Dog" signs is only exceeded by the grateful improvement of the animals themselves, any comparison with the Newton Way would be invidious as well as profane. It is just a question of attitudes. In an effete community like Brooklyn it is accepted doctrine that the right to discontinue, distract or disfigure his neighbor by any innocent proclivities that are not immoral or treasonable. And, in these days of looming dictatorships, who will have the hardihood to propose any abridgment of our freedom? Down with the fascist misocynist!

Yours truly,

LEONARD MONZERT.

*And not only over the streets, but with wild abandon over the neighbors' lawns and flowerbeds, the noble hound roams at will. Dissatisfied with the bathing facilities at home, some of the larger West Newton hounds regularly bathe every summer morning in a small pool in the backyard of one pop-eyed Newtonite who erroneously believed he had reserved the pool for goldfish and water-lilies.

JUNK IS REMOVED

Editor, Newton Graphic:
Mention was made a few weeks ago about the condition of the Webster Playground located at the end of Warren st., Newton Center, as to the goodly amount of Junk that was seen from the train on the way to Boston. It is a pleasure to let you know that since the article the City Officials have removed the old automobiles etc., and have piled them upon the recently leveled surface ready for proper disposal in the proper parties for use in this great emergency. This playground is destined to be a great relief for the Newton Center Playground located upon Center st. and Tyler ter.

It was originally a dump and time has settled the area and by the skillful leveling last year to remove the RAG WEED that infested the surface it now presents a chance for use by boys without too much expense in leveling.

A neighbor residing in the vicinity suggests that it be opened to the boys to play ball as they now play in the streets and even without a backstop they chase the ball in the neighbors' back yard. In talking with one of the boys of the junior age he said the Newton Center Playground was wonderful and they played there but they were not able to play when the larger boys came upon the field. Thus the opening of the area for baseball even if three old cat, as we used to play, would give perhaps an outlet for play near home.

It would seem that this could be done without too much supervision but let the boys organize their own arrangement for direction. Of course this must be under the authority of the Playground Commission which is endeavoring to promote play areas in the several parts of the city.

HERBERT J. KELLAWAY.

THE GOOD OLD DAYS

Good old days are on the way. Horse and buggy may come to stay.

Pink straw matting on the floor. Yes, the good old days of yore.

Black pot and kettle on the stove. Brick fire pot for boiling clothes. A pitcher pump and wooden sink. A flip flap table with pen and ink.

The kitchen shelf a tick tick clack. An old kitchen door, a neighbor's knock. A cup of tea, a pinch of snuff. The truth is told without a bluff.

Wood and coal we'll have to burn. Gas and light man we will spurn. No more water bills to pay. We'll drink at the well every day.

A feather bed, with down so soft. A flickering candle just aloft. Mother's good night kiss so sweet. With now I lay me down to sleep.

BRIDE-TO-BE GIVEN SHOWER

March "went out like a lamb" at the home of Miss Ruth L. Putnam of Taft ave., West Newton, Tuesday evening when she was hostess at a shower for Miss Marilyn Lucia Fairfax, who had the protection of a large umbrella during the downpour which was accompanied by reflections from colors in aqua and coral and brought the bride-to-be many useful gifts from twenty-five of her friends.

55 YEARS AGO

Newton Graphic, March 19, 1887
E. P. Burnham of Newton, is the first to bring out a wheel this year, and on Monday he rode to Newtonville on his tricycle. It was not a long ride, but it was long enough over such roads.

The dramatic club to be called "The Players," filled its entire list of 150 members within ten days from the date of sending out the invitations, and a large waiting list has been started.

"No star is ever lost we once have seen" we hope may prove true of the electric light; gas seems feeble in comparison.

Fales & Son of Framingham have the contract for Gov. Claflin's new block on Claffin court, Newtonville, in the rear of theasonic block, and E. P. Burnham, of Newton, has the contract for the brick work.

The leading stores in Boston are delivering packages free to Auburndale by Johnson & Keyes express.

The demand for small houses in Nonantum is illustrated by the fact that a man who was building an $800 house, recently, rented for $12 a month before he had finished digging the cellar.

The stone chapel of the Baptist Society, Newton Centre, is slowly rising; the ground plan shows a building of good proportions, with large bow-window fronting on Beacon st. The fine effect of the brown stone trimming is seen near the ground where a single tier girdles the structure.

50 YEARS AGO

Newton Graphic, March 18, 1892
The hill section of West Newton is evidently all "torn up" over the proposition to erect telephone poles along its quiet streets, and the residents evidently do not desire such an unsightly addition to their section. They are all of them familiar with Highland st. from the railroad station to Washington st., where huge telephone poles usurp so much of the narrow sidewalk that people passing them have to walk in single file, and when it rains there is no room to carry on ordinary umbrellas between the poles and the fence. Whenever there is an entertainment at City Hall these poles drive the crowd that come on the trains into the street and are in every way a nuisance. No wonder West Newton people do not want more of them, and object strongly to having their sidewalks monopolized by the telephone company. Mr. R. M. Patrick's suggestion that the wires could easily be placed under ground was not an unreasonable one, and this ought certainly to be done on the main streets, where the poles are now as prominent as they are ugly, which is saying a good deal.

The discussion over the appropriation for a hose house and police station at Nonantum will interest tax payers, many of whom find it hard to understand why such an expensive building is needed in that section, unless it be that the building will be so artistic in design as to prove a constant source of education to the residents, in the art of architecture. In this light the building may be worth all that it costs, even if the original figure of $12,500 be retained. New public buildings appear to come pretty high in Newton, and if a small hose house and police station costs this amount, the tax payer's imagination is not overtaxed.

On next Monday evening this Union will hold a joint meeting with the Newton Union at the Y. M. C. A. in Newton where several very interesting speakers will be heard.

JOINT MEETING OF W. C. T. U.

The joint meeting of Newton and West Newton W. C. T. U. will be held at Newton Y. M. C. A., 276 Church st., Monday eve, April 6, at 7:45, for a "Round Table" Conference. "Protection and a better understanding" is a vital question in our camps as a health security for all of our U. S. A. boys.

President Benton Outlines Boston Mutual Life Gain

The Boston Mutual Life Insurance Company in 1941 had the largest gain in insurance in force in any year since the company was organized over fifty years ago, President Jay R. Benton reports in the company's annual financial statement.

Insurance in force increased to $103,589,639 with 315,019 policyholders. Reflecting increases in every phase of activity, the annual report points to a year in which the total admitted assets, the premium income, the excess of income over disbursements, and payments to policyholders again attained new all time highs.

Admitted assets during the past year increased 7 per cent, making the total on December 31st, $16,192,179. Liabilities at the end of the year amounted to $15,187,364, the greater part of which are the policy reserve of $14,519,678. Excess of income over expenditures amounted to $921,970.

Last year the Boston Mutual paid policyholders and beneficiaries $1,778,552, including participating dividends of $220,430. Since organization the company has paid dividends to policyholders and beneficiaries $35,108,682.

Recently the company has concentrated its investment of money to a steadily increasing degree in United States Government Bonds, with the result that at the end of 1941, 72 per cent of all the securities owned were in U. S. Bonds. Last year the U. S. Bonds owned were increased by $2,348,149, including an investment of $50,000 in Series G Defense Savings Bonds, the maximum amount of this type of security which can be subscribed to in any one year.

In charge of the investment policies of the company are President Benton, Secretary and Treasurer Edward C. Mansfield, Seward W. Jones and Frank L. Richardson, President of the Executive Vice-presidents, respectively, of the Newton Trust Company; John W. Marno, Vice-President of the State Street Trust Company; J. Leonard Johnson of C. H. Membership in the Lions Club is by invitation.

policy of "lower starting salaries." The salary of City Treasurer Francis Newhall, who recently retired, was $5,000. The aldermen also denied the increase recommended by the mayor for the deputy collector, whose salary is $2,750.

In the Assessing Department, the board increased the salary of the chairman from $4,000 to $4,200 and granted an increase of $100 to the "new assessor." The amount for clerical assistance was cut to $6,139.33.

One of the salary increases added by the committee was in the City Clerk's Department. The mayor had recommended $9,776 for clerical assistance, but the committee prevailed upon him to add $52 to the amount in order to provide a salary increase for another clerk. Because there will be no pre-primary this year, the committee cut the recommended sum of $9,000 for election expenses to $8,500.

In the Soldiers' Relief Department, the board cut the mayor's recommendation of $30,000 for soldiers' relief to $27,000.

A $50 increase for one of the engineering assistants was cut out of the Engineering Department budget by the board and the item for the clerical assistance was cut from $1,612 to $1,560, the same salary paid last year.

During the discussion of the budget of the Public Buildings Department, Alderman Carol J. Hoffman made a motion that the salaries of two of the six inspectors be omitted because of the slump in building operations and the consequent reduction in the work of the inspectors.

He moved that $5,600 be cut out of the item for salaries of inspectors, but was informed by President Flood that the men were under civil service and must be given hearings before being removed.

The board authorized the purchase of new radio equipment for the Police Department.

In the Welfare Department, the board cut $5,000 from the mayor's recommendation of $150,000 for "poor out of city infirmity." The sum of $8,000 was also cut from the city's share of the cost of "aid to dependent children."

Extensive cuts were also made in the budget of the Street Department. The session adjourned at 2:10 a. m.

THIS IS OUR AMERICA!

Our country is the only true democracy left in the world. We are fighting to save it. The only way we can save it is for all of us to work together.

In an emergency such as is confronting the United States now, there is but one thing for us to do, and that is to follow the leadership that the people themselves have set up.

Heckling the administration in the difficult job we are trying to get done serves no purpose but to create disunity and dissatisfaction at a time when what is most needed is a united effort toward a common objective.

Somebody must captain the ship, the rest of us to be the crew. We can't all be captains, at least not after the ship has left port.

Those of us who, through disabilities and age, are not privileged to do our bit on the "Fighting Fronts," can with honor and pride do our share in no end of ways on the "Home Fronts."

Indifference and lack of co-operation NOW in an ALL OUT effort can lead to a "Knock Out" of what we value most, OUR AMERICA.

Air Raid Shelter For Newton Home

An air raid shelter, believed to be the first in Newton, has been completed after three months of labor on the part of Ivan Pettys of 19 Elmwood pk., Newtonville, and James A. Wood of 15 Elmwood pk., Newtonville. The shelter, which has 8 in. walls of reinforced concrete, is in the cellar of the Pettys residence. The materials cost less than $30 but many hours of labor were spent in the mixing and casting of cement and in heaving the many spruce beams used in the construction of the shelter. Mr. Pettys served in the First World War with the army engineers and had experience in building dugout shelters while in France. The shelter will accommodate 30 persons.

During the blackout test last night while Mr. and Mrs. Pettys were at their posts as air wardens, their children, Linden, 15, Robert, 11, and Charles, 6, stayed in the shelter.

Named Head of Wildey Savings

At the annual meeting, on April 1, of the Wildey Savings Bank of Boston, Arthur S. Roe of Swampscott, who has been connected with the organization for more than 30 years, was elected as its new president. For the past 20 years he has served the bank in an official capacity, becoming assistant treasurer in 1922 and treasurer less than a year ago. He was formerly with the Old Colony Trust Co. Mr. Roe succeeds Frank L. Cutter, who is retiring from active service with the savings bank.

Succeeding Mr. Roe as treasurer of the Wildey, Edward C. Keating, who has been assistant treasurer for several years, also rounds out 30 years with that institution.

It is significant that this bank, which has well over 19 millions in assets, celebrates this month its 50th anniversary as a mutual savings bank. It has long been a prominent insurance bank for savings bank life insurance.

Funeral Services Held for Deputy Fire Chief Henry T. Seaver

Collapsed While Directing Firemen At Large Brush Fire Off Baldpate Road Monday Afternoon

Deputy Chief Henry T. Seaver of the Newton Fire Department collapsed while directing firemen at a large brush fire off Baldpate rd., Newton Centre, on Monday afternoon and was pronounced dead on his arrival at the Newton Hospital. Members of the fire department had worked over him with the department inhalator assisted by a doctor who happened to be in the vicinity, prior to the arrival of the ambulance, in an effort to revive him. Dr. Thomas Morton Gallagher after viewing the body at the hospital stated that death was due to acute dilatation of the heart due to over-exertion.

Deputy Chief Seaver who was in his 49th year was born in Newton Lower Falls on June 28, 1893 in the house at 656 West st. where he had resided. He was the son of the late Joshua H. and Ida E. Seaver. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Anna Lou Seaver and a sister, Mrs. Nelly Whitney of Wellesley Farms. He was appointed a substitute member of the Newton Fire Department on August 12, 1912 and a permanent member on June 1, 1916. On June 29, 1918 he entered the United States Navy and was stationed at Hingham. On January 8, 1919, he returned to work in the Fire Department, was appointed a lieutenant on Sept. 23, 1923, captain on August 18, 1927 and deputy chief on October 26, 1935. Due to the illness of Chief Clarence Randlett, he had headed the department for the past several months.

He was a member of the Masons, of Newton Post, American Legion, Holme Lodge, I. O. O. F. and of the Newton Fireman's Relief Association.

Funeral services were held Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in St. Mary's Episcopal Church, Newton Lower Falls. A detail of firemen attended the services. The pallbearers were Lieut. J. Martin of Engine 1; Lieut. J. Clarke of Engine 2; Lieut. G. Saunders of Engine 3; Lieut. J. Marchand of Engine 4; Lieut. J. Murphy of Engine 5 and J. Lord of Engine 2. Burial was in St. Mary's Cemetery, Newton Lower Falls.

To Adopt New Schedule of Collecting Rubbish and Ashes Every Two Weeks

A new schedule of collecting rubbish and ashes every two weeks instead of each week is to be adopted by the Newton Street Department, to go into effect in about two weeks. This schedule will be similar to the summer schedule. Street Commissioner John D. Haughey is making plans to send notices of the proposed new schedule to each household in the city. He predicts that it will mean a great saving of tires, gasoline and equipment. The fact that Newton, being a large consumer of gasoline, has been placed on a ration along with the gasoline stations, was the deciding factor in the adoption of this new schedule although on account of the tire shortage it had been under consideration for some time.

During the summer months the amount of material collected is much smaller and the Salvage movement will further decrease the amount of material put out for collection as many residents are now selling waste materials to junk dealers.

Free Dog Clinic From April 20-24

A free dog clinic will be held at the Newton High School drill shed, Walnut st., Newtonville, April 20 to 24, 1942, from 3 to 6 o'clock p. m., for vaccination of licensed dogs.

There have been outbreaks of rabies in nearby cities and towns, but this city has been fortunate in this respect, due in a measure to the annual vaccination of dogs. If the rabies is controlled it will obviate the necessity of restraining dogs from running at large. Vaccination is effective for a year and the dog should then be vaccinated again.

Take your dog to the clinic with your 1942 dog license.

Owners whose names begin with A. to D. inclusive, Monday, April 20; E. to I. inclusive, Tuesday, April 21; J. to Q. inclusive, Wednesday, April 22; R. to T. inclusive, Thursday, April 23; U. to Z. inclusive, Friday, April 24.

You are respectfully urged to have your dog vaccinated at this clinic and thereby prevent the spread of rabies. The City Veterinarian, Dr. Richard C. Schofield is in charge.

Building Shows Sharp Decline

Building activity in the Newtons has fallen to a low level during the past month as shown by the record of permits issued by the Public Buildings Department.

There were 35 permits issued last month as compared with 85 issued in March of 1941 and the valuation of the proposed building projects was $46,981 compared to $336,090 in March 1941.

Permits were issued for only seven single dwellings valued at a total of $31,750 in March.

The report for the month being:
Single dwellings .....	$31,750
Private garages .....	3,500
Alterations, residential buildings .....	10,901
Alterations, non-residential buildings .....	500
Signs .....	330
Total .....	$46,981

The number of permits issued during the first three months of this year was 107 and the value of projects $141,926 compared with 170 permits and a total value of $554,094 in the corresponding period last year and 145 permits and a total value of $479,242 in the first three months of 1940.

Building Dept. Denied Trucks

The right of the Newton Public Buildings Department to acquire two panel trucks has been denied by the County Rationing Board at Cambridge, and the Building Department has appealed from the decision of the board. These trucks are needed for the transportation of materials used in the renovation and repairing of public buildings.

The appeal of the Sealer of Weights and Measures who applied for the purchase of a car is still pending.

The Water Department has been granted permission to purchase a six ton truck and the Street Department to purchase two coupes. Other city departments who have made applications for permission to purchase new machines have not yet heard from the Board.

Arrives Home From Burma After Six Year Assignment With Baptist Mission

Mrs. William Cummings, who with her husband was on a 6-year assignment from the Baptist Mission in the Shan States, Burma when the war broke out, has arrived with her two sons, Gordon, 8, and Bruce, 7, at the home of her husband's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Cummings of 49 Pelham st., Newton Centre. With her two sons, Mrs. Cummings left Nankham on January 8 and went north in a car with other missionaries.

Failing to get seats in a plane to India, the group turned south on the Burma road to Rangoon. Eight days of suspense and anxiety were spent in Rangoon before the group could leave on a ship to India, which landed them at Calcutta after two days and two nights.

After a delay of a week in Calcutta, the party went overland to Bombay, a 48-hour, hot, dusty trip. Still another delay of a week in Bombay was ended by departure on a ship carrying 175 passengers, including 24 sailors and two officers from an American naval vessel sunk in China.

The ship missed a convoy at Trinidad by two hours and was forced to cross the Atlantic alone, in constant fear of submarine and raider attack. The sail around the Cape of Good Hope to New York took 50 days instead of the usual 36.

Mrs. Cummings told of the anti the speed of cars and thereby cut the accident toll.

British activity in Burma as the result of Nazi fifth column propaganda by the Japanese.

"It is not surprising at all to read that the Burmese are sniping and hindering the British and Chinese," she said. "For four or five years the Japanese have been working in Burma with racial propaganda, telling them that the two nations are of the same race and worship the same kind of gods. There is no doubt that this campaign has been guided directly by the Nazis."

"The old U. S. A. looks pretty good to me, but I am worried now for my husband," Mrs. Cummings stated. They have two other children living in a missionary home in Granville, Ohio.

Human Machine Is Talk Subject

The regular meeting of the Newton Lions Club will be held on Thursday, April 9th, 6:29 p. m., at the Newton Y. M. C. A.

At the first meeting last week the Y. Doc Tom Burns gave an excellent talk on "The Human Machine." Six guests were present: Austin W. Flint of the Showmut Bank, Trust Department; Guy R. King who is Frank Dumlevy's son-in-law; Wm. J. Paul of the Boston & Albany R.R.; William A. Hoops of U. S. Employment Service; Raymond E. Gorman of Liggett's West Newton store, and Thomas E. Kelly, the sand and gravel man.

Gorman, Hoops and Kelly signed up as new Lions and have been added to the charter roster. Flint, King and Paul promised to come back, and they know the invitation to become Lions is genuine.

Charter Night is scheduled for May 6th, and this special event will be a ladies' night at Woodland Country Club. It is important that you reserve this date and plan now to bring your Lions.

Ralph S. E. "Southeast" Sanguinetti is Charter Night Chairman and has perfected plans which insure a successful celebration of the presentation of our charter. The charter roster is to be held open until April 30th.

City Drivers To Get Protection

Drivers of city-owned motor vehicles have won the first step in their long fight to prevail upon the city to provide financial protection for them from claims for personal injury resulting from accidents.

A recommendation has been made by Mayor Paul M. Goddard that the city consider the acceptance of the provisions of Chapter 41, Section 100-A of the General Laws, which provides that city officers or employees may be indemnified by the city for personal injury claims resulting from accidents.

A delegation of city employees who drive cars and trucks for the city recently called on the mayor and asked that the city provide the desired protection for the drivers. Many similar efforts were made unsuccessfully in past years.

The Board of Aldermen is expected to take action on the mayor's recommendation after a study of the situation by the claims and rules committee.

Provisions Of Act

Section 100-A provides that "A city which accepts the section by vote of its city council may after an appropriation has been made therefor, indemnify an officer or employee thereof for expenses or damages incurred by him in the defense of or settlement of a claim against him for bodily injury including death at any time therefrom, arising out of the operation of a motor vehicle owned by such city or town to an amount not exceeding $5,000; Provided, that after investigation it shall appear to the mayor that such officer or employee was at the time the claim arose acting within the scope of his official duties or employment, and provided, further, that the defense or settlement of such claim shall have been made by the city solicitor, upon the request of said officer or employee and at the direction of the mayor."

A committee was appointed to draw up a resolution concerning the death of Deputy Chief Seaver. Alderman George E. Rawson, who made the motion, termed the official demise "a grievous loss" and asserted that the "loss" of his life for the protection of the people.

The board voted to appropriate $2,000 instead of the $10,000 sum recommended by the mayor from the WPA reserve account for the construction of granolithic sidewalks and curbing.

Vice-President Joseph B. Jamieson, Jr., chairman of the public works committee, explained that the $2,000 would enable the WPA force to continue to lay curbing, but further consideration would be given the rest of the sum asked. He said that $155,000 of Federal funds is still available for the sidewalk project.

Alderman Carrol J. Hoffman, renewing his efforts to reduce WPA expenditures, remarked that the city should not "continue projects to keep men working who could get other jobs."

Chairman Carl F. Schipper, Jr., of the Finance Committee replied that the committee was of the same opinion, but was convinced that the WPA force is "down to the residual number."

He said that it was not WPA projects the city would have spent $200,000 more for welfare relief last year.

"The WPA is here and we've got to face it," he said.

Other appropriations passed were:

Police Dept., for exchange price for spot-lights on the seven new cars purchased by the department, $52.50.

Water Dept., eliminating dead ends:

Wardolph st., Ward 5, east of Dickerman rd., for a distance of 240 ft.—6 in. pipe, $1,036.00.

Linwood ave., Ward 2, from Melbourne ave. to Bridge st., for a distance of 254 ft. 6 in. pipe, $1,008.00.

Pigeon Hill rd., Riverside rd., Evergreen ave. to Charles st., for a distance of 736 ft. 6 in. pipe, $3,020.00.

Chamberlain rd., Ward 7, at Farlow rd., for a distance of 54 feet, 6 in. pipe, $350.00.

Water Dept., payment for 46,000 gallons of water purchased from the Metropolitan District Commission in the year 1941, $5,079.62.

Abandoning the policy of "continuous patching," the Aldermen appropriated $45,000 from street bonds for the reconstruction of Washington st. from the West Newton railroad bridge to Commonwealth ave.

That the project would prove more economical than the process of repairing the present road was the opinion expressed by Vice-President Joseph B. Jamieson, chairman of the public works committee. He pointed out that the material for patching costs $4.50 a ton and "keeps going up" and

Alderman C. J. Hoffman Makes Further Efforts To Reduce WPA Expenditures

Meeting Also Votes To Divide Duties of Deputy Fire Chief by Appointing Assistants; Other Matters Discussed

A few hours after the sudden death of Deputy Chief Henry T. Seaver of the Newton Fire Department while engaged in fighting a brush fire, the Board of Aldermen Monday night voted to divide the duties of the office by providing for the appointment of two assistant chiefs.

The Fire Department ordinance was amended so that the personnel of the department instead of including "an assistant chief" shall include "not more than two assistant chiefs." The change was recommended Monday night by Mayor Paul M. Goddard. It was originally proposed at the time that the personnel of the department be increased by the adoption of the two-platoon system over a year ago.

A committee was appointed to draw up a resolution concerning the death of Deputy Chief Seaver. Alderman George E. Rawson, who made the motion, termed the official demise "a grievous loss" and asserted that the "loss" of his life for the protection of the people.

Volunteer Corps For Schools

To complete the A. R. P. System of protection of Newton school buildings, two volunteer caretakers will be appointed for each building to be available for duty at night between the hours of 6 p. m. and 8 a. m.

Under the direction of Superintendent Julius E. Warren, deputy chief of the school police, each of the schools has organized a complete air raid protection organization that is solely responsible for the children and the property between the hours of 8 a. m. and 4 p. m. on school days.

The school organization, complete with wardens, messengers, first aid units, is arranging for shelter areas and holding practices.

The voluntary caretakers are needed because most of the teachers and many of the janitors live too distant from the schools to be of assistance during air raids. The voluntary caretakers will have keys to the buildings and will occupy the buildings during raids in order to fight incendiary fires.

Two men who live near the school property will be selected as volunteer caretakers by the principal of the school.

POSTER EXHIBIT

Those interested in war support work and all those interested in the work of the School system, should attend the exhibition of posters done by pupils of the Newton schools which will be held in the Community Room of the Newtonville Library, Friday and Saturday, April 10 and 11, from two to six p. m. each day. These posters represent local work in a state contest sponsored by the Federation of Women's Clubs of Massachusetts for the purpose of stimulating the purchase of Defense Stamps and Bonds.

The seventy posters on exhibit will represent the winners from hundreds done by classes from the fifth grades through Senior High school. Since it was physically impossible to enter all classes in the contest, four classes each of fifth and sixth grades, four classes each from our four junior high schools and volunteer work from the senior high school were selected for the contest. After local school exhibits, five from each class have been selected for the exhibit, the art teachers and the members of the senior high schools acting as judges.

The library exhibit will be judged by a special committee of five distinguished artists who will select fifteen posters to be entered in a Massachusetts state contest to be held at the Boston Museum of Fine Arts, April 14. The names of the judges and the prize winners in the local contest will be announced next week.

The contest and exhibit are being held through co-operation of Julius E. Warren, superintendent of the Newton School system, and the teachers of the schools engaged, with the Art Committee of the Newton Federation of Women's Clubs. The members of the sponsoring committee are as follows: Mrs. John A. McLaughlin, chairman; Mrs. Walter D. Knight, Mrs. Frank W. Mardo, Mrs. George Hymen, Mrs. Roger C. Ellis, Mrs. E. I. Clapp, Mrs. Arthur Chaffer, Mrs. Harold Piper, Mrs. C. W. Davis and Mrs. George Danforth.

The Dramateers of the West Newton Community Centre, Inc., regret to announce that because of illness the scheduled performance of "Elmer" will not be held Friday, April 10, at the Franklin School, West Newton.

Those who have already purchased tickets may use them on the night which will be announced for the postponed performance. Watch this paper for the notice.

The program was conducted by Mr. Harold Everett of Watertown, who showed colorful reproductions of the few palatial homes preserved in Natchez.

Some gardens are small with more delicate flowers, others spacious and ornate; much is being done by the southern folk to raise money to preserve them. Elaborate programs are arranged, wearing of colonial costumes in accurate accord with the period; and the zeal prevalent in gay times never wanes.

Mr. Everett stressed the fact that the home equally artistic arrangements, gorgeous blooms, rock gardens, conventional and natural, and foliage, of many tints of green; interspersed with riotous colors, around the pools, redolent of delicate lilies. One has only to seek such spots to see and enjoy them.

Every summer since 1935, records have been made of the numerous flashes of lightning that strike the Empire State building, New York city. The intensity of each flash is recorded on oscillographs set up in the tower and these readings are correlated with photographs taken with three special cameras from a building eight blocks away.

Streamlined

Two new streamlined uniforms for their appearance at reveille formation in an army camp. It was raining, and the band—the regimental alarm clock—didn't bare forth on its customary reveille march. Two sergeants snored on their backs, blissfully unaware of the time. Then came a blast on the top-kick, a whistle and the nervous jarring shout of "Hit the line!" In a blur of white, two forms dashed out of the bunks, tumbled with some clothes and dashed out to formation. Their total garb: Shoes, raincoat and campaign hats.

Antlers Too Heavy . . . Sometimes deer grow antlers so heavy that they cannot be lifted from the ground for any length of time and, consequently, the animals eventually die of starvation. ## Police Pistol Range Dedicated

Marked by dedication exercises attended by Mayor Paul M. Goddard and members of the Board of Aldermen, the newly completed
$17,000 pistol range at Newton police headquarters was formally opened last Saturday afternoon.

In recognition of the part he played in bringing about the project, Mayor Goddard received a gift of a pearl-handled .32 calibre automatic inscribed with his name in gold letters.

After the mayor had received the gift, one of the aldermen remarked jokingly: "If you carry that out of here without a permit you may be arrested."

But Chief Michael T. Hughes, who had made the presentation, had prepared for just such an eventuality. For he promptly produced a permit in full force and effect and presented it to the mayor.

The program included an exhibition of shooting by members of the police revolver team, consisting of Joseph H. Smith, John
J. McGrath, Stephen Madden,
John F. Lovely and David T. Dalton. A large assortment of firearms was on display.

The members of the police team first fired at a regulation target, displaying almost perfect marksmanship. They then used a silhouette target, Smith and Mc-Grath firing at the head zone, and Lovely and Madden shooting at the torso. Dalton gave an exhibition with a sub-machine gun.

The guests also took part in the shooting and the aldermen displayed such excellent marksmanship that a movement was started to form an aldermanic team to compete with the police. Alderman Charles E. Hughes, son of Chief Hughes, shot a nearly perfect score.

The range was constructed as a basement addition to police headquarters. The project was started more than a year ago, but because of shortage of materials progress was slow. The work was done with W. P. A. labor and materials purchased by the city. Regarded as one of the fine-est police pistol ranges in the country, it has among its outstanding features a backdrop of armor plate 5-8ths of an inch thick,

War Labor Topic Is Discussed

The organization of Labor and Industry for War was the subject of discussion by a study group of the Newton League of Women Voters on Monday, April 5 at the Newtonville Library, under the direction of Mrs. E. B. Millard.

Envisaging the problems faced, Mrs. Robert T. Boshnell spoke of the new National War Labor Board which was created on January 12, 1942, to provide both arbitration and mediation in industrial disputes. The chief difficulties in its functioning are that it has no authority to enforce compulsory arbitration on unions and management alike—that as yet no clear policy for it to follow has been laid down by Congress or the President.

Mrs. Henry E. Robert spoke briefly of the Massachusetts Conciliation Board, recognized throughout the country as most successful in enabling each party to a dispute to see not only its own side but that of its opponents and thus to acquiesce in a reasonable settlement of the question.

Miss Mary K. Allen presented the argument for a ceiling on wages. Rising wages mean more money in the hands of the workman, industry, being so largely devoted to war supplies can produce only a limited amount of consumer goods. Abundant money and limited goods will mean high prices. Higher prices will be followed by demands for higher wages. There is no end to the vicious circle. The workman is no better off than when wages and prices are lower.

Mrs. Kristian A. Juthe gave arguments for and against the proposed repeal of the 40-hour law, which requires payment of one and a half the regular wage for overtime and double pay for Sundays. For repeal: 1. need for increased war production without undue cost; 2. the law was enacted to provide jobs during a period of wide unemployment such as did not now exist. Points against repeal were: 1. it would require a sacrifice by labor of "social gains" and would bear heavily especially on the low-paid non-union worker; 2. it would involve a readjustment of wages and would not necessarily decrease labor costs; 3. the present law has not been the cause of delay in production. The point was also emphasized that the law does not forbid work for more than 40 hours but merely regulates pay for extra time.

Miss William M. Barber described plans for drafting labor. Actual consideration of man-power of industry is to be one of the broadest steps in reorganizing the war economy. The probable procedure will be a questionnaire sent to the whole population by the Selective Service Board and one of Mr. McNutt's agencies, acting together, which will ascertain the qualifications of every man, woman and youth of over sixteen years in the country. Next a general administrative agency will be set up which will allocate the right man to the right job. It is now thought that the President's choice for administrator will be Mr. McNutt.

Rotarians Hear Talk on India

For up-to-the-minute pertinency and interest in world affairs, again the Program Committee of the club hit the bell when it secured as its speakers on last Monday the Reverend and Mrs. Krishna Modak of India. At the very moment when the future of India and perhaps of the world is being decided at New Delhi, we have an intensely interesting and informing presentation of life in India by this talented and unprejudiced couple. Dressed in native costume, they interpreted for us the culture of the great middle class in India. Most of us are accustomed to think of India as populated largely by hordes of intolerably poor people and rich Oriental Potentates and princes. We do not think of the India of politics and action directed by the folk like ourselves. Yet the Modaks made us see that the India of today is largely influenced and directed in its decisions and actions by the very large middle class group of citizens. They see India at this moment standing on the dividing line between the past 250 years of subjection to the British Empire and a future which is certainly to be one of independence for India in a commonwealth of democratic nations. They recognize that there are some critical points in policy and strategy to be solved, but feel confident that India must emerge from this crisis independent and free, loyal not only to Great Britain, but to all democracies of the world.

It was a thrilling, entertaining and very human program that the Modaks presented. In it we saw something of the daily life of the men and the women of the Indian household. We learned of their food, their leisurely morning preparation for the day's work, their religious customs and ideas. We are grateful to Reverend and Mrs. Modak for bringing us at this time such a moving interpretation of life in a country which has always seemed remote and distant from our own.

It was a thrilling, entertaining and very human program that the Modaks presented. In it we saw something of the daily life of the men and the women of the Indian household. We learned of their food, their leisurely morning preparation for the day's work, their religious customs and ideas. We are grateful to Reverend and Mrs. Modak for bringing us at this time such a moving interpretation of life in a country which has always seemed remote and distant from our own.

55 YEARS AGO

Newton Graphic, March 26, 1887
The Hospital Trustees at their meeting on Monday received a statement from the building committee to the effect that a new wing was needed and would cost about $6,500 for the building and furniture. The general feeling was opposed to commencing the work until the money was subscribed. Here is a chance for some of our generous citizens.

The building committee of Eliot Church is still engaged in considering plans for the new building. Mr. George F. Meacham, who designed the Channing Church building, has been chosen as the architect, and has already submitted several plans. The work of removing the debris of the burned building is going on, and probably by the time settled weather comes work will begin.

Water town is to have electric lights, as a company has secured a location in that town, and are pushing the matter forward. They generously announce that they will be willing to help illuminate Newton and Waltham.

A prominent citizen of Newtonville has offered land for the site of a Baptist church in this Ward. He is a member of the Methodist Church, but he wishes to have all denominations represented here.

The report that a strike is to be ordered to the carpenters and masons on May 1 has stopped the building of two houses in Newton Highlands, which were to be erected this spring. We were in hopes that this was an "off" year on strikes.

The lady patrons of the Circuit rd. are complaining about having the smoking car placed in the middle of the trains, as they are obliged to pass through them to obtain seats. The complaint is just, and the railroad company ought to make up their trains in a proper manner.

The United States Fireworks Company of Newton Upper Falls have been obliged to erect two more buildings on their grounds, in order to accommodate their greatly increased business.

A new long distance telephone is to be put in the guard room at police headquarters by order of Mayor Hibbard. It will be of great convenience and may be of great advantage in hastening the ends of justice.

Mr. Arthur S. Kimball, of Auburndale, was the first plumber to register under the new plumbing ordinance.

About ten from Newton Lower Falls are employed at the paper and rubber mills in Upper Falls.

A late report has it that the Rice Silk mill is to be put in use for the manufacture of woolen goods.

Sullivan's extract mills have increased their number of help one-half during the past two weeks and are turning out more work than ever before.

City Plans To Sell Waste Paper

Street Commissioner John D. Haughey announced last Thursday that instead of baling waste paper at the incinerator in Newton Highlands, the plan of selling it directly to Boston contractors has been adopted. The income from this new system is larger than was derived from the former system.

The material is now brought to the incinerator where it is loaded on trucks and taken to the contractor in Boston, thus doing away with the necessity of sorting it here, and the crew which worked on the sorting has been transferred to other work.

The incinerator is now used only on Saturdays for the burning of combustible material that cannot be sold. The baling machine purchased by the city last year at a cost of $4000 has more than paid for its cost and will undoubtedly be used again when the market for the mixed unsorted paper falls off.

'Ball's-Eye' Precision

"Ball's-eye" precision is demonstrated by the skill of steel mill crane operators. From their lofty perches they manipulate huge ladles brimming with 150 tons of molten steel and "spot" them over ingot mold openings for pouring. Some openings are no larger than your hat.

Alderman Hoffman

bility for Cousens Fund loans when the board voted to approve mortgage loans of $6,000, $4,000 and $4,800.

He said it was his recollection that the donor of the fund had specified that the loans be made to "workmen" and he questioned whether the applicant for the $6,000 loan would fall into that class.

Chairman Carl F. Schipper denied that the loans were restricted to workmen, stating that the donor of the fund had provided that the loans be granted to "deserving citizens" and that the city solicitor had ruled that they need not necessarily be citizens who perform manual labor. "I am positive you are wrong," he said. "As a matter of fact the $6,000 loan is to be made to a minister."

Temperley replied that the size of the loan indicated that a large house was involved. "Big houses have proved a big headache to banks and real estate dealers and I don't want the Cousens Fund to be in the same predicament," he asserted.

The fund was left to the city for the purpose of aiding "industrious citizens to purchase homes." The board appropriated $1,200 for Workmen's Compensation in the case of Louis Mura, Street Department helper who was severely injured about the hands, arms and legs while working at the Pine st. dump. The sum of $380 was also appropriated for payment of Mura's hospital bill.

The board appropriated $2,000 additional for the survey of all streets in the Water Department distribution system.

A letter was received from Max R. Reiser, attorney for Cynthia Brown, stating that his client "no longer wished to prosecute her claim against the city for damage to her auto on March 3 on Watertown st., alleged to have been caused by a Water Department truck." She had set the damage at $33.50.

The board voted a favorable report on Edwin W. Hadley, 16 Belmont st., Waltham, an applicant for a certificate of incorporation for the Anti-Vivisection Society of America.

At the petitioner's request the board voted "leave to withdraw" on the petition of John J. Glynn for a license to sell liquor at 10 Kirwin ct., Waltham.

Rather than present a partial report on the study of the question of increasing fees for licenses, the special committee appointed for the purpose withheld its report. The board, Alderman Hoffman, stated that it had been decided to wait until a complete report can be made.

Following hearings at which no opposition developed, the board granted the following petitions: Boston Edison Company and New England Telephone and Telegraph Company, joint pole locations, Centre st., Ward 6, southerly from Allerton rd. four poles.

Sun Oil Company, permit to use triangular parcel of land adjoining premises at 325 Boylston st., Ward 6, as an additional site for a gasoline station, approach to Boylston st. in connection with existing gasoline selling station.

Book Salesman Is Found Guilty

A book salesman whose defense was that he had bitten off more than he could chew was found guilty of larceny in the Newton District Court Wednesday and his case was placed on file by Judge Donald E. Mayberry after he made restitution.

His arrest was the result of a complaint by a Newton physician that he had paid $9.50 for a set of reference books, but the books had never been delivered.

The defendant, William J. Dalton, 48, of the Hotel Clinton, Springfield, was arrested there and brought back to Newton last night by Sergeants Patrick J. King and Philip Purcell, who had investigated the complaint of Dr. Carmen R. Petrillo, 449 Washington st., Newton, that he had been swindled.

"I bit off more than I could chew," the defendant told the court. "I sold too many sets of books and lost money. I assumed that they had all been shipped."

He said that after the Newton transaction he was forced to go out of business and go into defense work but since then he had returned to the book business. Dr. Petrillo testified that he ordered the set of books as a Christmas present for his son. He said the defendant called on him on October 28 and offered to sell him the set at a reduced rate because of his profession. He said that Dalton declared that professional men were being selected by the books at lower prices because of the advertising value to the concern. The doctor stated he gave Dalton a check for $9.50 and waited for the arrival of the books.

When a long time elapsed and they did not come, he started an investigation and learned that Dalton had moved from his office on Federal st. and was no longer connected with the firm which he had said he represented.

Despite the contention of the defense that Dalton was a civil case, the court found him guilty and offered to place the case on file if restitution was made. The offer was accepted and Dr. Petrillo got his money back.

John Bull

In 1712, John Bull, an English author and physician, wrote a satirical novel, "The History of John Bull," in which the main character was represented as being the typical Englishman. The name caught the public fancy and it has been used ever since in much the same manner as we use "Uncle Sam."

A WEEK OF WAR

War Production Director Nelson, speaking in New York City, said "America's industrial plant is really beginning to roll." He said airplane production scheduled for the first three months of this year have been met or exceeded, and production of tanks is ahead of schedule.

Mr. Nelson said production of merchant ships is "rising rapidly" and this year's schedule should be met. A Garand rifle is now available for "every one of our combat soldiers who is supposed to have one," he said. Production schedules for anti-aircraft and anti-tank guns also are being met. However, "this is no time for easy optimism," he stated, because the production of war goods is so huge a job "we can break every record we ever made and still fall short of the need."

The Senate passed and sent to the House legislation to set up a $100 million Smaller War Plants Corporation under the War Production Board. The Corporation would obtain contracts from Government procurement agencies and re-award them to small enterprises, breaking the orders into subcontracts where necessary.

Civilian Supply

The WPB ruled persons buying toothpaste or shaving cream in tubes must turn in to the retailers some kind of tin or tin-coated tube for each new one purchased. The Board froze sales and deliveries of all new bicycles for adults, including those already ordered and paid for.

The Board ordered collection of the extra cloth made available by the elimination of cuffs from approximately 50 million pairs of trousers now on hand in stores. The salvage clip will make about 300,000 new suits.

The Board ordered production of cover caps of tinplate or terplate, used as closures for catsup, jelly, etc., stopped immediately, and of crown caps for bottled beer and soft drinks stopped April 30. Production of fluorescent lighting fixtures was also ordered ended immediately; of vacuum cleaners, April 30; and toys and games made of metal, plastic and other essential materials, June 30. The Board curtailed use of rubber, rubber and latex in 50 articles, including fire and mill hose, storage batteries, etc.

Priority Order Compliance

The WPA reported investigations of 14,000 firms for compliance with priority orders have been undertaken since last June. Reports have been completed on 3,500 firms. The Board said that of these 1,600 showed no violations while approximately the same number reported minor violations through misunderstandings. The reports resulted in 35 suspension orders, affecting 46 firms and one individual. Thirty-five agencies are co-operating with the Board in the surveys.

The Office of Price Administration, wholesale and retail prices of plumbing fixtures and of 44 common household electric appliances, all at March 30 levels. Ceilings were also set on wholesale prices of bond, ledger, book and plain and fancy cover paper and Bristol, and on producers' quotations for Pennsylvania anthracite coal. The Agriculture Department said the retail cost of food is now 15 percent above the 1935-39 average, but is still below the 1929 level.

Civilian Defense

Civilian Defense Director Landis said Axis air raids on American war industries this spring are "extremely possible." He said "it's worth a dozen bombers to the Germans to wreck vital industries, even in the heart of the country." Mr. Landis said $20 million of OGD funds have been transferred to build facilities for manufacture of civilian gas masks. First shipments of helmets, arm bands and other equipment for air raid wardens and auxiliary firemen and police were sent to more than 40 Atlantic and Pacific coast cities.

The Armed Forces

The Senate passed and sent to the House a bill granting pay increases from $30 a month to $42 for privates and apprentice sergeants, and providing proportional increases for other classes of enlisted men in the armed forces. The Post Office Department issued regulations for granting of free first-class mailing privileges for all ranks of the armed forces. The Senate passed and sent to the House a bill eliminating restrictions on marriage of Army and Navy officers during the war. The President signed legislation to permit the War Department to recruit American technicians serving in foreign armed forces and to pay them more than $21 a month during the first four months.

The Navy Department said meetings have been arranged in 35 States between April 9 and 17 to acquaint educators with the Navy officer procurement program under which 80,000 college freshmen and sophomores will be recruited annually. The students will be enlisted as Apprentice Seamen and allowed to remain in school at least to the end of the second year. About 35,000 will be selected each year for further training leading to commissions as ensigns in the Naval Reserve.

The House passed and sent to the Senate an $18 billion War Appropriation Bill, providing almost $7 billion for military airplanes. The Senate passed and sent to the House a naval public works bill to provide a billion dollars for expansion in aircraft and storage facilities. The War Department ruled officers and enlisted men, except those of the Regular Army, may campaign for and hold political office, if such activity does not interfere with military duties. Selective Service Headquarters instructed local boards to start classification of February 16 registrants and to prepare to fill the Army's June call—and possibly the May call—from these men and the earlier registrants. SS Headquarters also issued instructions to all local boards for registration of the many babies.

The War Front

The Navy reported as of April 4 total Japanese losses inflicted by U. S. naval forces included 21 warships sunk, 13 possibly sunk and 22 damaged; 48 non-combatant ships sunk, 14 possibly sunk and 1 damaged. The Army and Navy said Axis submarines sunk or presumed sunk by the Navy totaled 24, and those by the Army number four. Assistant Secretary of War for Air Lovett said U. S. pilots in the Far East are shooting down five Japanese planes for every plane lost.

The forces of Lt. Gen. Wainwright in the Philippines repelled several enemy attacks by land sea and air on Bataan Peninsula and Corregidor Island with heavy Japanese losses. Japanese bombers sank the U. S. aircraft tender Langley, the destroyer Peary and the Navy transport Decatur in the southwest Pacific, with an estimated loss of 700 men. The Navy reported the torpedoing of 15 more United Nations merchant vessels in the Atlantic.

Shipping

The Maritime Commission reported all contracts have been awarded for the 23 million deadweight tons of merchant shipping—nearly 2,300 cargo ships and tankers—which the President has set as the 1942-43 goal. The Senate passed and returned to the House a bill enlarging the war risk provisions of the Merchant Marine Act to allow insurance of foreign as well as domestic ships.

Agriculture

The Department of Agriculture said it had purchased more than $800 million worth of farm commodities, totaling more than 7,500 million pounds, during the first year of the President's expanded purchase program—March 15, 1941, to March 15, 1942. More than half of all purchases were for meat, dairy and poultry products. Most purchases were for Lend-Lease shipment.

The Agriculture Department reported prices of all farm products combined were 99 percent parity on March 15, 1942, and 46 percent above the 1909-14 average. The Commodity Credit Corporation reported it has contracted for the sale, during the period ending April 30, of about 5,500,000 bushels of corn and about 240,000 bushels of wheat to be processed into industrial alcohol.

Lt. Col. Warren J. Clear Home From Philippines

Newton Officer, In Letter To Dad, Tells of Bataan and Corregidor

The following is a copy of a letter received by Mr. James Clear of 15 Hovey st., Newton, from his son Lt. Colonel Warren J. Clear, U. S. A., who has recently returned to Washington, D. C., from Corregidor.

Washington, D. C., War Department.
Dearest Old Dad:

Two months ago I never expected to see you again—nor Mary and my home, but by the mercy of God I am here, and say it reverently.

It is all a miracle. I went through fifty-five bombings on Bataan and Corregidor, was depth-charged on the submarine trip through the Japanese blockade from Corregidor to Sourabaya, Java, bombed as we came into Sourabaya Harbor and a few days later when General Patrick J. Hurley and I flew into Port Darwin, Australia from Bandseng, Java, our big B-24 was hit by 91 Jap bombers in their raid of March 19th on Port Darwin. Pat was wounded and we lost all our effects (for the 9th or 10th time!).

I left Washington July 1941, on a trip of 45,000 miles that took me through India, Burma, two months with Brooks Popham at Singapore, Thailand, Indo-China and China, much of the time in enemy-occupied territory. It was all a tremendous experience, climaxed by being caught in Manila when war broke Dec 8th. I had a ticket on the Dec. 10 clipper which, of course, never arrived!

I am looking forward to seeing you soon. It will be a happy moment! Write me: Colonel Warren J. Clear, G-2 War Department, Washington, D. C. I tried to phone you the other day. Give my best to Julia Bryson.

My thoughts are all with my dear friends who are downed in Bataan and Corregidor. It has been a living hell there for months—bombers over night and day. My prayers are for them as the closing hours of the dreadful drama approach.

God bless you, Old Man, and keep you hale and hearty until I see you very soon. It is wonderful to be able to look forward to such a happiness!

Your devoted son,
WARREN.

Lt. Col. Clear who was born in Newton attended Our Lady's High School and was graduated from Boston College in 1918, where he was a star debater and editor of Stylus, the monthly magazine of the college. He served as a second and first lieutenant in the U. S. Army during the World War and in 1921 was made a captain, assigned to the 15th Infantry and assistant to the intelligence office of the Philippines department. In May 1925 he was directed by Secretary of War Weeks to serve for a year with the Japanese Army and during that year formed a boxing class at the Japanese Military Academy, which so pleased General Ugaki, Japanese Minister of War, that he was presented with a priceless sword made by Masamune in 1487. He speaks both Japanese and Chinese fluently.

Col. Clear has brought to Washington a graphic first-hand account of the days preceding the fall of Bataan. He was interviewed during the Army Hour program on the radio on Sunday evening.

May Postpone All New Construction

The order issued by the War Production Board at Washington prohibiting new construction of roads may force the cancellation of the $45,000 Washington st. reconstruction project authorized by the Newton Board of Aldermen.

At the request of Mayor Paul M. Goddard, the aldermen passed the $45,000 appropriation for the purpose of rebuilding the roadway of Washington st. from the West Newton railroad bridge to Commonwealth ave.

The decision to undertake the project was prompted by a realization that the policy of patching the street would prove more expensive in the long run. The project was to have been financed by street bonds.

Street Commissioner John D. Haughey is consulting with the War Production Board for the purpose of ascertaining the status of the project.

Men Over 45 May Also Be Drafted

The probability that men over 45 will also be drafted into war work was expressed by Major George A. Morin, chief of the manpower division of Selective Service in Massachusetts, who was the speaker at the meeting of the Newton Rotary Club yesterday at the Brae Run Country Club.

Major Morin, the first officer of the 26th Division to be inducted into Federal Service, started his present work on Oct. 3, 1940, when he became chief of the legal division to set up the operation of selective service in Massachusetts.

He said the doubling of the pay for soldiers and allotment for dependents would result in the induction of many men now deferred for dependents. Men who will register on April 27 will be drawn into war work and will be replaced in many cases by women, Major Morin stated.

The operation of selective service is divided into three groups, procurement of supplies, administration and personnel, and operation. Major Morin is in charge of the organization of supervisors, registration of men, classification, physical examination and delivery of the men to the Army.

The speaker was introduced by Harry Kay, who arranged the program.

Bruce Appointed As Community Chest Head In Worcester

Lyscom A. Bruce To Resign April 25 As Executive Director of the Newton Community Chest

Leaves To Accept Similar Position In Worcester—Has Made Excellent Record Here Since Assuming Post in 1936—Prominent In Civic Affairs

LYSCOM A. BRUCE

Lyscom A. Bruce, prominent in Newton civic affairs for the past fifteen years and executive director of the Newton Community Chest since 1936, will leave this post on April 25 to take up a similar position in the city of Worcester, Mass.

Wm. V. M. Fawcett, president of the Newton Chest, in emphasizing the sense of loss felt by all his associates, said, "Selfishly, we cannot help but regret Mr. Bruce's decision, yet we are proud that he has grown in our community to the place where he is worthy of greater opportunities than we have to offer. We shall miss his cheerful cooperation, his sound advice, and his untiring efforts in behalf of the Newton Community Chest and Council and the city generally."

Born in Windsor, Vt., in 1895, Bruce attended grammar and high schools in Dorchester, Mass., and graduated from Harvard College in 1917. Following two years of war service as an ensign at the Naval Air Station in Pensacola, Fla., he became identified with the Boy Scouts as an executive in a Boston district.

In 1927 he came to Newton as Scout Executive of the Norumbega Council, in which capacity he twice took Newton troops abroad to World Scout Jamborees.

For eight years he was secretary, and for two years, president, of the Newton Rotary Club, and is now deputy chief warden of the Newton ARP services. He is also executive director of the Newton Community Council, a member of the Executive Board, Metropolitan Conference of Social Planning, and was formerly on the executive committee of the N. E. Association of Community Chests and Councils.

Bruce is a member of Newton's American Legion Post 48, and of Norumbega Lodge, A. F. and A. M. His wife is the former Margaret N. Luce, of Nashua, N. H., and they have two children, Robert S., 15, and Sarah E., 11.

Newton Selected By Government For Training of Men In Radio Work

The City of Newton has been selected by the Federal Government as one of several Massachusetts cities in which classes will be conducted for the training of men in radio work. The members of these classes will be selected through the United States Civil Service and graduates will be employed as civilian workers in the Signal Corps.

The first class in which 20 men are enrolled will start this Thursday, April 16, in the Newton Trade School. The hours for this class will be from 12 noon to 8 p. m. Two more classes of 20 men each are to be organized later, one to be conducted from 4 p. m. to 12 p. m. and the other will be held in the day time following the closing of the regular Trade School term in June.

James Forbes, director of the Trade School, has issued an appeal for contributions of old radios to aid the instructors in carrying on the courses.

The courses will extend over a period of six months. Candidates for the courses must have had either two years of electrical training in a Trade School, one year's training in an engineering school or several years' experience in electrical work.

Other cities selected to conduct similar courses are Boston, Springfield, New Bedford and Medford.

Community Chest To Hold Annual Meeting

The annual meeting of the Newton Community Chest will be held at the Newton Centre Women's Club at 6:45 p. m., Thursday, April 23. Dinner will be "Dutch Treat."

Francis W. Hatch, well-known Boston advertising executive and former public relations chairman of the Greater Boston fund, will speak on the importance of maintaining favorable public relations in wartime, and will offer practical suggestions for accomplishing this objective.

For the first time, invitations have been issued to all officers, directors and executives of all member agencies, and a large attendance is expected.

The dinner takes on additional significance in that it will be the farewell appearance of Executive Director Lyscom A. Bruce, who leaves shortly to assume a similar post in the city of Worcester.

The Auburndale Review Club

The study of North and South America was the topic of the Review Club met with Mrs. Charles E. Valentine of Wolcott st., Mrs. James G. Patterson presiding, on Tuesday morning.

As the year is so near to its close, the business meeting was held. The program turned over to the chairman of the day, Mrs. Guy M. Winslow who announced that the first paper on the "Lure of Quebec" would be given by Mrs. Lawrence Allen in place of Ernest Braithwaite as scheduled.

Mrs. Allen had toured through this country, and in speaking of many of the objects of interest, was able to give personal impressions. She told us how freely they had seemed to emphasize the nature in their poems, she read "Hill-top Songs," "Lily of the Valley" and "On the Road" by Charles G. D. Roberts. From Archibald Laphams poems she chose "In March" and "The Largest Life" the latter introducing a spiritual motif.

A book-review followed by Mrs. Arthur T. Freeman who used Gunther's "Inside South America" and she spoke of the meeting with the South American republics to another in rapid sequence. She spoke briefly of the outstanding features found in each one, and closed with the comment that this country needed South America fully as much as she needed this country.

"Canadian Poets and Poetry" was the final topic, and Mrs. Guy Winslow, who had compared the works of a group of poets from Canada, read selections from several. To illustrate the point that they all seemed to emphasize the nature in their poems, she read "Hill-top Songs," "Lily of the Valley" and "On the Road" by Charles G. D. Roberts. From Archibald Laphams poems she chose "In March" and "The Largest Life" the latter introducing a spiritual motif.

From the works of Bliss Carman she read from "The Vagabond's Song," "Spring Song," "In a Mountain Gate-way," all symbolic of nature.

Others mentioned as possessing merit were Charles Sangster, Charles Mair, George Cameron, Pauline Johnson, William Henry Drummond, Beatrice Redpath, Joel McCrea and Jesse Edgar Middleton.

The club felt that the reading of these beautiful selections was a fitting climax to the year of study.

NEWTON LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS

Taxes were discussed at the study group of the Newton League of Women Voters on Monday, April 13, at the Newtonville Library, under the direction of Mrs. H. C. Bronsdon, Jr.

Mrs. Bronsdon outlined the characteristics of a salary tax. It must produce adequate revenue, must place the burden fairly on everybody, must tend to check inflation, must tend to lessen post-war dislocation. She stated that the outlook for this year is expected to reach 59 billions.

Miss M. K. Allen spoke briefly defining inflation and pointing out its evils. She emphasized that borrowing from individuals, as through sale of bonds, is less inflationary than borrowing from banks, which do not require collateral but lend on credit.

Mrs. E. B. Millard discussed corporation taxes. It was recognized that such taxes must not be so large as to necessitate neglect and depreciation of plant.

Sales taxes were discussed by Mrs. Howard Wilson. Though the League disapproves them as throwing an undue burden on the underprivileged, the probability of their adoption in some form was realized. The return if all sales are taxed would be something like 9 billions. An alternative might be the lowering of the exemption limit. This would make people more tax conscious.

Mrs. James T. Rubey contributed extremely interesting diagrams showing by varied colors expenditures for non-defense and defense in the past fiscal year, the present one and the one ending June 30, 1943. The diagrams showed also the proportion of income which will come from taxation and that to be borrowed.

The proposal to require that tax should be retained at source was mentioned as well as the suggestion by the C. I. O. that the work week should be 48 hours, payment for the last 8 hours being in war bonds, also that no unit should have an income of more than $25,000.00.

Burglar Is Caught By Library Book

A library book abandoned by a burglar in his flight from the home of Walter Forbes, 12 Whittemore rd., Newton, Saturday, enabled the police to establish the identity of the thief.

The alleged culprit, a 16-year-old Lexington boy, failed to return to his home and police planned to swear out a warrant charging him with breaking and entering.

Forbes was asleep in the house after 1 a. m. when he was awakened by a noise. He saw a match flare up in the kitchen and he called out, thinking that a member of his family was in the kitchen. Instead of responding the person fled through the back door. Forbes followed and police found the intruder had left a Lexington public library book on a table in the kitchen. The thief had also opened a child's pocketbook, but it contained no money.

Forbes reported the incident to the police and Patrolmen Thomas Maloney and James J. McManus were sent to the scene. Sergeant Richard L. Bannon and Inspector Joseph B. Lyons took over the investigation and, using the library book as a clue, they learned the identity of the alleged burglar. When they went to his home in Lexington they learned that he had not returned home. Investigation of his record revealed that he had been arrested for breaking and entering and larceny in Brookline.

The 16-year-old burglar was surrendered to the police Tuesday by his mother.

Under questioning by police the boy admitted that it was he who entered the Forbes house and lighted a match in the kitchen to light his way in a search for loot. The noise awoke Forbes and the flare of the match attracted his attention. When he called out to see if it was a member of his family, the intruder did not respond but fled through the back door, which he had brought.

After he was questioned in the presence of Lieut. Daniel E. Crowley, Sergeant Richard L. Bannon and Inspector Joseph B. Lyons, the boy was taken to the court house and the police applied for a complaint charging him with breaking and entering and larceny.

Recommends New Mortality Tables Be Adopted Here To Reduce Pensions

In his 13th annual report to the Retirement Board, George B. Buck, actuary of the Newton Retirement System, recommended that new mortality tables be adopted which would have the effect of reducing the amount of pension payable. Opposition to this change was made by Daniel A. White, chairman of the Retirement Board, because he feels that a cut in the pension rate is not necessary.

The actuary stated that the mortality rates upon which pensions are now based have proved to be unfavorable because Newton pensioners as a rule have experienced a lower mortality rate. "As to active members," he stated, "only the disability retirement experience and the service retirement experience may be considered to be favorable, whereas the experience with respect to withdrawal, mortality and salary increases was found to be unfavorable." As to mortality rates among pensioners Buck stated:

"The mortality experience with respect to general employees—men was favorable during the five-year period preceding June 30, 1936, but unfavorable during the past five years. It is, therefore, recommended that the Board at this time adopt more conservative mortality tables for general employees, men and women."

The actuary's report was accompanied by the following letter to the board:

Buck's Letter
"Subsection (12) of Section 14 of the Newton retirement act provides that on the basis of such tables as the Retirement Board shall from time to time adopt, the actuary shall make an annual actuarial valuation of the assets and liabilities of the reserve funds of the system created by the act."

"I submit herewith my report on the thirteenth valuation of the system made in accordance with this section of the act. On the basis of the valuation results, recommendations have been prepared as to the appropriation payable by the City for the year 1942. "No change in the percentage contribution rates payable by the City is recommended. The valuation showed an increase in the normal rate of contribution payable on account of policemen and firemen, but no increase in the normal rate is requested at the present time due to the fact that there is some margin in the actuarial liability rate which can be used to offset the increase in the normal cost. The accrued liability decreased during the year but the decrease was less than might have been expected due to a deficit in interest earnings. However, as a whole the system has made good financial progress to date on the basis of the present rates and no immediate change is recommended."

"On June 30, 1941, five years had elapsed since last investigation of the service and mortality experience of members and beneficiaries of the retirement system. Therefore, as called for in Section 14, subsection (11) of the retirement act, an investigation was conducted this year which covered the five years ended June 30, 1941. The results of the investigation are described in detail in this report. Although the experience among both active and retired members has been unfavorable in several aspects, no change in the active service and retirement tables and the salary scales is recommended for the time being. However, it was felt that a change should be made in the mortality tables for general employees, men and women, retired on account of service and for men and women dependent beneficiaries. With these changes which will be recommended to the Board in a separate memorandum, it is hoped that the system will continue to operate satisfactorily during the next five years."

Ash Collection Every Two Weeks

Beginning on Monday, April 27, the Newton Street Department will collect ashes and rubbish only every two weeks instead of each week. This curtailment of collections is in the interest of defense and conservation of war materials. Notices have been sent out to all homes specifying the day of the week in which collections will be made in each district and the following list of rules regarding the dividing of rubbish into three separate containers as follows:

"1. Non-salvage materials but combustible such as, wooden boxes, leaves, and brush. (Note) Brush will not be collected unless it is neatly tied in bundles not over 4 ft. or feet in length and two feet in diameter.

"2. Non-salvage material and non-combustible such as ashes and rags.

"3. Salvage material such as paper, magazines, corrugated paper, bottles, rags, rubber, tin cans, and other metals (anything not classed as non-salvage in 1 and 2 above).

"If your collection day falls on a holiday, your rubbish will be collected on the next working day.

All rubbish must be placed on the outer edge of the sidewalk before 7 a. m. on the collection day. Trucks will not "call back for rubbish set out after" the truck has passed through.

"Do not mix garbage with your rubbish."

Newton First In Health Contest

The City of Newton has again been awarded first place in the National Health contest, this being the fourth successive year that Newton has led in this contest, which is conducted under the auspices of the United States Chamber of Commerce and the American Public Health Association.

In 1938 and 1939 Newton won first place in its population class. In 1940 and 1941 the system was changed so that all cities receiving awards were on a par. Ten cities were chosen for awards of merit in 1940 and 14 cities in the 1941 contest, Newton being the only Massachusetts city among those chosen. The other winning cities are Detroit, Mich.; Evanston, Ill.; Greenwich, Conn.; Hackensack, N. J.; Hartford, Conn.; LaSalle, Ill.; Louisville, Ky.; Madison, Wis.; Memphis, Tenn.; Milwaukee, Wis.; Reading, Pa.; and Schenectady, N. Y.

A certificate and plaque will be awarded to the City of Newton at the annual convention of the American Public Health Association to be held in St. Louis, Mo., in October, when Dr. Ernest M. Morris, Director of Public Health in Newton, will receive the awards for the city.

Gets Six Months For Bad Check

John A. Holland, 32 of 9 Pine st., Boston, was sentenced to serve 6 months in the House of Correction by Judge Donald A. Mayberry in the Newton District Court on Saturday morning, on a charge of attempted larceny by check. Holland tried to pass the check in a store at 330 Walnut st., Newtonville on Friday evening about 6 o'clock, and when the suspicion of the clerk was aroused, he fled through the rear door of the store. He was captured by the police on Commonwealth ave. near Walnut st. by Patrolmen Maloney, John Bagley and Martin Greeley.

Files Suit for Injury Caused by Fall

A claim for personal injuries received in a fall on a sidewalk on Auburndale ave., has been filed against the City of Newton by Mrs. Thomas Curley. Another claim against the city has been filed by Justin W. Shrader of 29 Kewadin rd. for damages caused two years ago by a city team to a Korean fir tree on his property. The claims are being investigated by the law department and hearings will be given by the Claims and Rules committee of the Board of Aldermen to the persons filing the claims.

School Committee Asks Funds To Provide Wire Glass For Raid Shelters

Aldermen Reject Recommendation
Of Planning Board To Rezone Land
At Crystal Lake and Crescent Ave.

For the installation of wire glass in the windows at all air raid shelters in school buildings, the Newton School Committee voted to ask Mayor Paul M. Goddard to recommend that the Board of Aldermen appropriate $3,700 Tuesday night.

The committee at the same time voted to purchase first aid equipment for all schools and to request that the Department of Municipal Defense reimburse the School Department for funds expended for this purpose. It was estimated that the sum of $684 would be needed for the purchase of the supplies.

The $3,700 appropriation for wire glass to avert injuries by flying glass in the event of an air raid was recommended by the Public Buildings Department after a survey of shelters in school buildings. The places deemed safest in each school have been designated as shelters.

The petition of city employees for an "emergency salary adjustment" of $125 each was forwarded to the School Committee, having been addressed to the mayor, the Board of Aldermen and the School Committee.

The school board took no action on the petition.

Superintendent Julius E. Warren reported that classes in radio work were started last week at the Trade School to fit men for service in the Army Signal Corps.

He also reported that Director James Forbes of the Trade School had obtained an allotment of $8,000 additional from the Federal government for the purchase of used machinery for the school.

The superintendent invited the members of the committee to attend a program in observance of "I Am An American Day" for new citizens at the Newton High School auditorium on Sunday afternoon, May 10, at 3 o'clock.

Over the opposition of Alderman Carroll J. Hoffman, the Newton Board of Aldermen rejected the recommendation of the Planning Board that land between Crystal Lake and Crescent ave., Newton Centre, now zoned as business and manufacturing property, be changed to residence district.

An echo of numerous previous debates concerning the highly controversial matter was heard when Hoffman's motion that the matter be referred back to the committee was defeated by a vote of 8 to 6.

Newton War Bond Pledge Campaign Opened Monday With Flying Start

The war bond pledge campaign in Newton got off to a flying start in Newton Monday and before the day had ended virtually every home in the city had been visited by the force of more than 2,000 workers with gratifying results.

The fact that the leaders of the drive took advantage of the ARP system by using air wardens as solicitors enabled them to make a rapid start. Most of the air wardens were already acquainted with the residents on their post.

The supply of 30,000 pledge cards with which the Newton organization started the campaign was exhausted before 11 a. m. George W. Sweet, chairman of the Newton pledge committee, obtained a new supply, which was also exhausted before the night was over.

Chairman Sweet reported that approximately 75 per cent of those approached had signed pledges and in almost every case the pledges were for 10 per cent of the salary, often more substantial.

The pledge cards are not legal promises to buy stamps or bonds, but indicate only a willingness on the part of the signer to buy to the extent of his financial limitations.

Many persons who are already making regular savings to buy bonds are being asked to sign pledge cards. These pledges will not be regarded as duplicates, but merely a record of what citizens intend doing.

President Edward Pease appointed a committee to sell war stamps and bonds weekly at the meetings, and the club members pledged to buy as many stamps and bonds weekly as possible. Also, it was suggested that the Club as a body give their blood to the Red Cross. Two of the members already have been signed to give their blood next week. There were many suggestions offered by the members as to how the Club could help the Defense Program. These are two of the suggestions that have already been adopted—there are many more to come.

The speaker of the day was Mr. Carl Birmingham, teacher at the Newton High School. His subject was "Placing our High School Graduates." He stated that there are over 17,000 different occupations for young people to choose from, but about 100 lines of business employ 50% of the total labor of the country. He said this year there would be from 750 to 800 young people graduate from the Newton High School. Already 125 positions have been found for these graduates since January first. They have been placed in different lines—manufacturing, stenographic, bank, clerical, sales and various other positions.

25 YEARS AGO
Newton Graphic, April 6, 1917
3142 votes were cast at the primary election on last Tuesday. This indicates a deeper public interest in the convention of the party that will name candidates in the field, a wider interest is taken on personal grounds alone.

West Newton residents gave a splendid gift to the city. They donated $80,000 of land and buildings for City Hall purposes. The land includes the church property, formerly occupied by the Second Church, on Washington st., the tenement houses and land immediately behind the City Hall on Cherry st., and a strip of land in the rear of the church and police station, and approximating 27,600 feet of land. This gift added to the City Hall and Police headquarters will give the city about 400 feet frontage on Washington st. and 220 feet deep. It is needless to say that this most generous offer was immediately accepted and the board expressed its appreciation of the action of West Newton citizens.

NEWTON In The Past

55 YEARS AGO
Newton Graphic, April 9, 1887
The Nonantum Cycle Club is now settled in its new rooms in the Masonic block, Newtonville. The $200 expended in furnishing was wisely used and the rooms are very attractive. A handsome new carpet and cherry chairs and tables comprise the most of the new furniture.

Mr. A. J. Macomber of Newton has gone to considerable expense to obtain a correct timekeeper for the people of Newton for him. It is of first class make, has the dead beat escapement and the maintaining power, and it would once a month. The time is Cambridge Standard time, the clock being connected by wire and regulated by electricity.

The annual inspection of the hose and engine houses by the committee on the fire department, will come off next Tuesday.

The Board of Aldermen has adopted a rule requiring the permanent members of the fire department to wear a uniform. The measure goes into effect next Monday. The fire department committee and officials have all ways favored uniforms, and about three years ago an effort was made to pass such a regulation, but it was thrown out by the common council and defeated. The uniform adopted has indigo blue for the color with special trimming for the officers, and the suits will be less expensive than ordinary clothes.

Miss Barnes of Newtonville will have marketing as the subject of her cooking lesson next Tuesday and it will be illustrated by a side of beef from Dearborn's market, which will be cut up under her directions.

A hearing will be given before the committee on petitions of the I. O. O. F., next Tuesday at 3 p. m., in Boston, on the application for a charter for a new lodge in West Newton.

50 YEARS AGO
Newton Graphic, April 8, 1892
The Newton Street Railway ran on 15 minute time all day yesterday, and in the afternoon put on open cars, and found it difficult to accommodate all who wanted to ride.

The number of books taken from the Newton Free Library in March was 13,675, the largest for any one month since the library was started. The previous highest total for any one month was some over 11,500.

Electric lights have been put in the offices at City Hall, West Newton, by Mr. Miner Robinson.

The conservative citizen is astonished at the way the Newton & Boston Street Railway company is branching out and endeavoring to connect the whole of Newton. Not content with getting into Newton Highlands they now ask for an extension to Upper Falls, and are now having a hearing on their petition, April 18th. They are anxious to secure the location as soon as possible so as to begin work at once and have the road in operation if possible in time to secure some of the summer travel.

Citizens of Upper Falls are said to be very anxious for the street railway as they are now but indifferently served by the New York and New England and the Boston & Albany, neither road coming within half a mile of the center of the village. We are accustomed to think of Upper Falls as pictured by Alderman Pettee, where the inhabitants go to bed at sundown, and are but little affected by the ways of the outside world. One who rides through its streets can hardly realize that he is in the city of Newton, but instead in some beautifully located hill town in the interior of the state, and a street railway would be almost a revolution in its streets. The wide awake men of the village are quick to see the advantage of a street railway and have been very urgent for the company to make the extension, at once. The line would also be very popular for pleasure travel, as it would make our famous Echo Bridge easily accessible from all parts of the city, and the company believe that the line would prove a paying investment, especially in the summer.

3142 votes were cast at the primary election on last Tuesday. This indicates a deeper public interest in the convention of the party that will name candidates in the field, a wider interest is taken on personal grounds alone.

West Newton residents gave a splendid gift to the city. They donated $80,000 of land and buildings for City Hall purposes. The land includes the church property, formerly occupied by the Second Church, on Washington st., the tenement houses and land immediately behind the City Hall on Cherry st., and a strip of land in the rear of the church and police station, and approximating 27,600 feet of land. This gift added to the City Hall and Police headquarters will give the city about 400 feet frontage on Washington st. and 220 feet deep. It is needless to say that this most generous offer was immediately accepted and the board expressed its appreciation of the action of West Newton citizens.

telephone service

Please look up numbers in the Directory. Don't trust to memory. If you dial, do it carefully.
When you give a number, speak slowly and clearly.

LITTLE mistakes in using the telephone occur 117-544 times a day in New England. Each error holds up switchboards, cables, equipment and skilled personnel an average of 21 seconds. That amounts to 685 hours of telephone service every day, which means that enough operators and switchboard equipment to serve a whole city the size of Manchester, N. H. are tied up because telephone numbers are not called correctly. You can help.

War-time regulations have been issued recently regarding the use of building materials in certain fields. We, as lumber dealers know how important and necessary these regulations are. THEY SHOULD BE CLEARLY UNDERSTOOD. The government does not wish to stop all private building. These regulations are issued to eliminate non-essential use of materials.

Here's What You Can Do

REPAIRING OR MAINTENANCE

There is NO COST LIMIT on necessary repairs such as a leaky roof, cracked ceilings, new floors, or any other work that does not change the design of the building.

NEW BUILDING

Any building begun by April 9, 1942, requires no permit to complete, regardless of cost. All other new houses must cost less than $6000, be in a defense area, and have a permit.

REMODELING

This means additions (changes in design of building) such as new porches, or conversion of single homes into multiple dwellings. No permit is necessary for all such remodeling work where the cost of labor and materials is less than $500.

AGRICULTURAL CONSTRUCTION

No permit is required up to $1000 (except houses) for new construction or repairs.

COMMERCIAL OR INDUSTRIAL

No permit is required up to $5000. This includes cost of labor and materials.

School Teachers Eager To Serve

Warren and the School Principals. Teachers have responded eagerly to this new opportunity for further service.

May 4-5, schools will be closed for Civilian Sugar Registration, to be done by the teachers on May 6-7, school will close at noon, so that teachers may conclude the registration work.

Plans Complete For Issuance of Sugar Ration Books Here

Registration to Be Held This Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday—Applicants to Be Asked to Declare Amount of Sugar They Have in Home

Plans are now completed for the issuance of War Ration Books in Newton on Monday, 9 a. m. to 9 p. m.; Tuesday, 9 a. m. to 9 p. m.; Wednesday, 1 to 9 p. m.; and Thursday, 1 to 9 p. m., May 4, 5, 6 and 7. In order to save time it is suggested that those whose last names begin with letters A-E register on Monday; those whose last names begin with letters F-M register on Tuesday; those whose last names begin with letters N-S register on Wednesday; and those whose names begin with letters T-Z register on Thursday.

On May 4, 5, 6 and 7, practically everyone must be registered for War Ration Books. Only inmates of institutions and those in the military and naval forces who receive rations are exempted.

Not everyone applies for his own War Ration Book, however. There are definite regulations as to who may make out the application blanks. Every person 18 years of age or older, must give careful consideration in advance of the registration dates to determine if he is the one who should or should not go to school to make out his own application.

The only people who go to school to register for themselves alone are those 18 years old or older who are not living with their own families at the present time. Any such persons who are temporarily away from their usual residences may apply for their own War Ration Books in whatever town or city they are at the time of registration. Students who are 18 years of age or older and are living away from home must apply for their own War Ration Books in whatever town or city they live. The person who realizes that he should apply for his own War Ration Book, but finds this an impossibility because of being incapacitated on the days of registration, may appoint a responsible person as Agent to make out his application blank for him.

Every family group sends only one member, who is 18 years of age or older, to register for all members of the family who live in the same household. Any member of the family who is away from home temporarily may be registered with the rest of the family. Students who are under 18 years of age and living away from home must be registered with the rest of the family. The information blanks delivered by the Boy Scouts contain a form to be filled out in advance by the applicant for the family and brought to school by him at the time of registration. This green form filled out prior to registration will simplify and shorten the time required to go through the process of registration.

A child who does not live with his parents must be registered by one of his parents, a guardian or a responsible person appointed as Agent.

Housewives are encouraged to register for their families during the day.

People are asked to go to the public elementary or junior high school which is nearest to their home.

Applicants will be asked to declare the amount of sugar in any form which they or their family unit own. People who have an excess of sugar on hand must file applications in spite of the quantity, since these Ration Books may be used later on for other commodities besides sugar.

"El" Protests Against 20-Mile Speed Ordinance in Newton

A protest against the speed limit of 20 miles an hour in Newton imposed on trolley cars by a city ordinance recently adopted by the Board of Aldermen has been received by the city government from Edward Dana, president and general manager of the Boston Elevated, and referred to the street traffic committee for study.

Dana quoted the statute which permits a speed limit of 30 miles an hour for motor vehicles and expressed the opinion that trolley cars which "travel together" on highways with motor vehicles should be governed by similar speed rules.

He asserted that to impose greater restrictions on the speed of street cars than on motor vehicles would "cause accidents rather than prevent them." The ordinance adopted by the aldermen called for a maximum of 20 miles an hour for trolley cars in the city, except at curves, where the maximum was specified as 10 miles an hour.

Dana addressed the letter to President Charles B. Floyd of the Board of Aldermen and asked that he be given an opportunity to confer with representatives of the board about the matter.

Before the ordinance can be enforced, it must be approved by the State Department of Public Utilities.

In his letter, just forwarded to the board by President Floyd, Dana referred to Section 17, Chapter 90, General Laws, which states that "shall be prima facie evidence of 'unreasonable speed' if motor vehicles travel more than 30 miles an hour in other than thickly settled or business districts for a distance of a fourth of a mile; more than 20 miles an hour in thickly settled or business districts for a distance of one-eighth of a mile, or more than 15 miles an hour at curve, a corner, or at a point where the view of the operator is obstructed upon approaching an intersection."

Resolution On Late Deputy Chief Seaver Adopted

A resolution paying tribute to the late Deputy Chief Henry T. Seaver of the Newton Fire Department has been adopted by the Newton Board of Aldermen. The resolution reads as follows:

"Henry T. Seaver, assistant chief of the Newton Fire Department, passed to his reward April 6, 1942.

He was appointed a substitute fireman Aug. 12, 1912, a permanent fireman June 1, 1916. From June 27, 1918 to Jan. 8, 1919, he was on leave of absence while serving in the U. S. Navy in the World War, and was stationed at Hingham. Returning to duty with the department on the latter date.

This highly specialized task should not lightly be thrust on a wife, relative or friend who may have had little or no training in intestate administration.

Our many years' experience as Executor is always available for the settlement of your estate.

Beginning of Red Cross
Henri Dunant, a Swiss humanitarian, in 1863 published a booklet describing the inadequate attempts to care for the wounded in the Battle of Solferino in 1859. This led to the formation of a commission to draft an agreement providing for national committees to assist army medical aid corps. The first international meeting was called at Geneva in 1863. The American Red Cross was organized in 1881 under the leadership of Clara Barton, who became its first president. Congress granted its charter in 1905.

Dr. Goose
The prefix "Dr." would be appropriate before the name of a Canada goose. He is an astonishing surgeon. One of these birds was recently seen in a refuge with a broken leg. He straightened out the leg with his beak and stood on the crippled limb for hours at a time. When he had to move, he used his wings in hopping along the ground. In a few weeks the broken leg was completely healed!

Four Hour Bloom
On one night only each year the night-blooming cereus, famous in the tropics, unfolds her lovely white blossoms, which are larger than saucers. Four hours from the time the bud begins to swell, the "queen of the night" is in gorgeous full bloom. Four hours later her flowers die!

MEN IN SERVICE

Midland Army Flying School, Texas, April 30.—Graduating with the first class of "Hell from Heaven Men" at this world's greatest bombardier college, Alfred W. Pezzella, 57 Pond st., Newton, was commissioned a second lieutenant in the U. S. Army Air Force today.

Completing his training in company with young men from thirty states, he already has been assigned to duty under sealed orders. Mr. Pezzella, who was active in dramatics, was a member of the glee club and played in the school orchestra. In civilian life he was employed as a salesman.

Stanley Fern, formerly of Newton Highlands, has been promoted to Sergeant in the United States Air Corps in which he enlisted in January.

Lieutenant George M. Powers, Jr., U. S. N. R., Officer in charge of Navy Recruiting activities in this district, announces that during the week ending April 24th the following named men from Newton were enlisted in the United States Naval Service: John Alden Chase, Jr., 17 Churchill ter.; Robert Francis Alfredson, 43 North st.; Edward Dominic Woloski, 254 California st.; Orville Willis Forte, 103 Roundwood st.

These men were given ratings in various branches of the service, where they may study for a trade, or continue in the trade they followed in civil life.

Boston—Leonard G. Trowbridge, 33 1/2 Pershing rd., West Newton, a captain of the Newton Community Fund Chest 1941-42, was today sworn into the Construction Regiment of the Naval Reserve at the Federal Building, Boston, by Lieut. George M. Powers, Jr., officer in charge of recruiting.

Trowbridge, a builder by trade, received a carpenter's mate first class rating. He is a descendant of Capt. Edmund Trowbridge, who fought in the Revolutionary War.

Pvt. William Hepburn Hall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Hall, 26 Webster st., Newton Center, Mass., has started a 19-week Airplane Mechanics course at the huge Air Corps Technical School at Keesler Field, Miss., at the completion of which he will be ready for active duty with Uncle Sam's fighting planes "on the line."

Private Hall, who came here from the Ft. Devens, Mass., reception center, already has completed his basic drill, which includes marching, target practice, bayonet drill, and orientation lectures.

In school he will take successive 10-day courses covering aircraft maintenance fundamentals, airplane structures, hydraulic systems, propellers, instruments, engines, electrical systems, fuel systems, engine operation, and inspection of single and multi-engine planes.

Goose From Clouds

What, no gravity? Dave Wilson, walking from his garage to his home on the banks of Nehalem bay, Oregon, was carrying a large piece of canvas when he suddenly looked up. He immediately spread out the canvas, for when he looked up he saw a large goose dropping from the sky. It dropped into the canvas.

Arthur Jorgensen, Recently Of Tokio, Speaks Here May 4

Mr. Arthur Jorgensen, recently of Tokyo, who for nearly thirty years has represented the International Committee of the Y. M. C. A. in Japan, will be the principal speaker at the 65th Annual Meeting of the Newton Young Men's Christian Association to be held Monday, May 4th. The meeting begins with a supper served at 6:30 p. m. and is open to all members of the Association and their male friends.

Through his many years of wide and intimate contacts in the Far East, Mr. Jorgensen speaks with authority on the complex problems presented by that region today. During the past ten years he has fostered the development of co-operative relationships with the Y. M. C. A. in Korea, Manchuria, and China. At present he is serving as Administrative Secretary of the World Service Program for the Far East.

He presents the Far Eastern scene from the point of view of the thoughtful, scholarly observer who at the same time takes in his perspective the significant contributions made by a great social and religious movement. He accepts the urgency of plans to win the war but stresses the equal importance of problems which will confront us when the fighting ceases. His appeal is for the long view, understanding and co-operative human relationships. "That is where the Y. M. C. A. comes in," he says. "It is a force with worldwide connections—connections made up of persons of all races who know and trust each other. That is the Y. M. C. A.'s contribution to a fragmented world."

Name Winners of Essay Contest

The announcement and presentation of the winners of the Senior Essay Contest and the poetry contest were made at the Senior Assembly last week. The annual Senior Essay contest is sponsored by the English Club and, therefore, its terminating point, a Senior Assembly, is also under their conduct. Each year every senior writes an essay; not more than five of these from each English class are submitted to the contest. Every essay is entered under a pen name, is read by at least three English teachers, and is submitted to the final judges who are persons outside the school.

This year there were three judges: Mrs. Leo Barry, wife of Mr. Barry of the English Department, and an English teacher herself; Professor Charles Swain Thomas, who was the founder of the English Club, a former head of the English Department, and who has recently been connected with Harvard University; and Mrs. Gorham Harris, poet, lecturer, and writer. Mrs. Harris presented the awards to the winners of both the essay and verse contests.

There were nine winning essays of which six were read in assembly and three were printed in The Newtonite. The nine winning essays and their authors were: "The Senior Essay" by Dana Danforth, "Bratting" by Sarah Lee Edson, "Back to Boogie-Woogie" by Fred Fowler, "Editorial" by Constance Gager, "It's a Small World" by Virginia Hale, "Memories of Japan" by Barbara Moran, "An Unforgettable Personality" by Elliott Robinson, "The Beauty of the Earth" by Suzanne Staub, and "Where All Free Men Shall Stand" by Robert Warshaw. The Verse contest is also sponsored by the English Club each year. This effort, however, is open to juniors and seniors and is entered voluntarily by the students. There were two winners: Constance Gager, first place, and Patricia Lamb, second, both of the class of 1942. Connie, who claims to have been writing "jingles and things ever since I can remember," has broken a school record by winning both essay and verse contests. The poems she entered were "Blackout," "Two Worlds," "They Also Serve," and "Night Sounds."

At its fifth meeting of the year the Newton Debating Club challenged Brookline's team on the subject, Resolved: There Should be a Union of the English-Speaking Democracies after the War. Brookline, upholding the affirmative, was represented by Robert Wiener, Melvyn Gordon, Melvyn Devlin, and their president, Robert Langer, who, however, did not participate in the debate. The Newton team consisted of John Morrissey and Robert Warshaw.

Edward A. Teschner, Jr., a student at Boston University, has been appointed a petty officer in the Naval Reserve.

Ruth Lamb and Eleanor Kelley have been placed on the Dean's List at Vermont Junior College. Ida Louise Kellaway is on the Dean's List at Stephen's College. Claire Wilson and Elizabeth Cort are on the Dean's List at Bates College.

Robert L. Clark has been elected to the Mystical Seven, senior honorary society at Wesleyan University.

Warren C. Baldwin was rated fourth in his class at Haverford at midyear.

The mathematical display that adorned the cabinet outside the Social Room was prepared by a committee from Mr. Taylor's Advanced Math Division, consisting of Fred Fowler, chairman Jerry Downs, and Bob Monroe. Among the many interesting models shown was one of the trajectory of a shell fired from a destroyer by Edward Dunn. John Frost and Bill Owens constructed two sets of geometric objects consisting of a detached dodecahedron, an octahedron, a duodecahedron, and an icosahedron. Another was on the practical application of trigonometry, measured the width of a river, and was constructed by John Gaskell, who was also responsible for several other "solids." Bob Monroe and Don Hyde discussed an interesting navigation problem which was illustrated by a ship mounted on a miniature globe.

of getting four acres by Bruce Gower, and others on graft curves and various mathematical methods. The exhibition acquired enough fame to warrant having its picture taken for a magazine.

Can Still Keep Homes In Repair

"Thousands of homes in America need repairs and work done on them to maintain them in good condition," says Paul S. Collier, Director of Northeastern Homes Foundation, Rochester, New York, "and these home owners need have no hesitancy in going ahead to fix them up. The materials are available for this work and there is no limitation on it."

"When the Government set about to conserve critical materials necessary for our war effort and issued its recent Conservation Order, it took into consideration the fact that home owners must likewise conserve their property investments and the best way to do so is to keep them in repair. For that reason, the Government exempted from its limitation order, repair and maintenance work needed to keep a structure in sound condition, providing such work does not involve structural change or change in design."

"The average individual who owns his home should know, too, that contrary to the impression which exists in many places, lumber and building materials are not frozen and may be procured for use in a number of ways as established by the recent order of the War Production Board."

"To obtain these materials, it isn't necessary to have a permit or go through a lot of red tape. If a roof leaks and repairs are necessary, it can be repaired. If the roof is beyond repair, a new one can be put on. No one will question that. If the porch is in need of attention, it, too, can be fixed. You can get windows, doors, screens, storm sash, wallboards, flooring, and similar materials for any that are worn out."

"Not only that, but a certain amount of remodeling and redecorating can be done—generally as much as the average person would want to undertake at one time—a total of $500 can be expended in any 12-month period without need of permit."

"When it comes to stores, and other commercial or industrial buildings, the limit is $5,000," continues Mr. Collier. "The Government recognizes the place which the farm occupies in our national War Program and it has generously extended the amount to $1,000 which can be spent on farm buildings (except residences) without the need of securing a permit."

"A number of people have been concerned with the efforts of the War Production Board's order on new construction. Some of them with foundations in, ready to continue with frame work, have been taken up by fear of loss involved in having construction stopped. This fear is needless, because the War Production Board specifically exempts such structures from being affected by the order. The only condition that constrains the building is that is to say that materials were physically incorporated into the structure previous to April 9, 1942."

"Then, too, this recent order permits the restoration or reconstruction of residential property damaged or destroyed after Jan. 1, 1942, by fire, flood, tornado, earthquake, or the public enemy even though the cost exceeds $500. No permit is needed to restore such losses if they should occur."

"In defense areas, homes may still be built for war workers, providing their total cost is less than $6,000 and a certificate has been issued by the Director of Priorities. A number of such houses are being built because they are vitally needed and the Government recognizes and desires to co-operate fully in making adequate housing facilities available where the need exists for war workers."

"Retail lumber and building material dealers are generally well informed and are in a position to help the average person take care of his needs within the scope of the Government Conservation Order."

"When in doubt about any specific job that comes up around the home or any new building you would like to erect, Peck Lumber Company will gladly advise with you and provide the facts which are essential to your proceeding with the work to be done. "Neither as a nation nor as an individual do we expect to gain if we allow property to depreciate beyond the point of salvage. Such a condition was never intended nor is expected."

Want Oak Hill Bus Line Extended

A petition signed by 140 residents requesting that the Oak Hill bus route be extended from Dedham st. along Brookline st. to the Brookline town line or to Horace James cir., West Roxbury, has been filed at Newton City Hall.

It is the third petition of the kind to be considered by the Board of Aldermen in recent months. The first, calling for a bus line on Beacon st., between Newton Lower Falls and Cleveland circle, Boston, was successful to the extent that the Middlesex & Boston Street Railway Company has been prevailed upon to operate the line for a trial period.

The second petition, filed by residents of the Charlemont district, requested the establishment of a bus line from the intersection of Walnut and Centre sts., Newton Highlands, along Centre and Winchester sts., to Nahanton st. The latter petition is still pending.

The company was reluctant to undertake the operation of the Beacon st. line and the Board of Aldermen turned down the petition, but residents of Waban appealed to the State Department of Public Utilities and the commissioners, after a hearing, prevailed upon the company to run the bus line for a trial period.

The latest petition has been referred to the franchise and licenses committee. The name of Mrs. Jonathan B. Rintels heads the list of signatures.

Newton Corporal From Hawaii Pays Surprise Visit to Mother

It was a happy day for Mrs. Ralph J. Hoitt of 30 Bernard st., Newton Highlands.

One of her two soldier sons, Corp. Horace M. Hoitt, Quartermaster Corps, Fort Devens, was about to be married. The thought ran through her mind that if only her other son, Corp. Alfred J. Hoitt, Field Artillery, were present instead of in far-off Hawaii, her happiness would be complete.

Just then there was a light knock on the door, it opened and in walked . . . none other than Corp. Alfred J. Hoitt.

He had been sent back from Hawaii to attend an officers' training school in Oklahoma, but his homecoming was a complete surprise to his parents. He had received an invitation to his brother's wedding, but neither he nor his brother had entertained any hope that he could make it.

Corp. Hoitt from Hawaii told how he and other members of his battery at Schofield Barracks, armed only with automatic rifles, fought the attack by about 100 low swooping Jap planes on Dec. 7. The planes, flying lower than the roofs of the barracks, had killed three soldiers as the latter slept in their bunks. The victims were hit by machine gun fire directed through windows and doors of the barracks.

"I was in charge of quarters of my battery and was engaged in making up the others," he said. "As it was Sunday, many were away on leave. Suddenly we heard a commotion outside. At first we thought it was our own air force staging a show. But as soon as I went out I recognized the planes as Japanese. The truth then dawned on me and I rushed to the supply room, broke down the door and with the others grabbed automatic rifles and went out to fire at the attacking planes. Under peacetime regulations, all the weapons were locked up in the supply room when not in use for training.

"The attack lasted about 20 minutes, but a lot of time was lost getting our weapons and the planes remained only a few minutes after we opened fire. Some of the members of other batteries came out of the barracks firing machine guns at the invaders. Three of the attacking planes were brought down and the others soon flew off."

"By this time a general alarm had gone out canceling all leave," he continued. "My closest pal, Victor Lott of Harper, Texas, returning from town (Honolulu), found that his bed had been hit by three machine gun bullets. It was lucky for him that he had been on leave."

The brothers, now corporals, may both be lieutenants soon. For Corp. Horace is also soon to attend an officers' training school. He took his bride last Sunday the former Edna Richards of Needham. He is back at Fort Devens now, having been recalled to duty sooner than he had expected.

Corp. Alfred enlisted in May, 1940, and after a few weeks' training at Ft. Slocum, N. Y., he was sent to Hawaii, where he arrived in July and where he had been stationed until his recent departure for home.

"THE SECRET WEAPON THAT WILL WIN THE WAR"

MORALE: Congress can't vote it. Dollars won't buy it. It's YOUR job to build it.

PUT UNITY INTO YOUR COMMUNITY: Unity starts with U. To win the war stop private wars at home, on the job, with the neighbors. Honest apology ends friction—starts teamwork. If we all pull together, we'll all pull through.

BE A RUMOR-STOPPER: Rumors help the enemy. Trace the facts. Face the facts. Don't exaggerate. Make your community gossip-proof, smear-proof, panic-proof and fear-proof. Every patriot shoots a rumor dead on sight.

MEET SHORTAGE BY SHARING: Use all of everything. Don't hoard. If everybody cares enough, and everybody shares enough, everybody will have enough. No waste in your ice-box, cash-box, brain-box.

KEEP THE MORAL STANDARDS OF THE NATION HIGH: Don't weaken the home-front by wangling something for yourself on the side. Dishonesty and indulgence in you saps the nation's fighting strength. A decent world tomorrow depends on how you live today.

THE SECRET OF STEADINESS AND INNER STRENGTH IS ON EVERY PENNY: "In God We Trust." Telephone wires may be cut, radio stations off the air, but no bombardment can stop us from being directed by God. To listen to God and obey wherever you are is your highest national service.

Charged With Breaking and Entering Here

James W. Blue, 21, of 23 Church st., Newton, was arrested at his home early Saturday morning by Sergeant Charles Walker and Patrolmen Concannon and White on a charge of breaking and entering with intent to commit a felony. In the Newton District Court on Saturday morning he was held in $5,000 bail for a hearing. Blue pleaded guilty but the clerk was ordered by Judge John J. Crehan to enter a plea of guilty at the request of Sergeant King, the prosecuting officer. Blue is alleged to have entered the home of Edward J. Mulcahy of 279 Church st., about 12:30 Friday morning, and the latter was aroused by a scream from his niece, who had been awakened by the man standing at the doorway of her room. Mulcahy chased him down the stairway, but Blue made his escape through the pantry window. On the way out, however, he dropped a pass that had been issued to him when he was a member of the Coast Guard, which led to his identification. He did not return to his home until late Friday evening.

Bail Increased At Request

Assistant District Attorney Maurice McWalters of the Middlesex County District Attorney's office prosecuted the case of Edward S. Cole, 24, of Hancock st., Somerville, in the Newton District Court on Thursday morning of last week. Cole was charged with breaking and entering and larceny of tires and an automobile. At the request of McWalters Judge Donald E. Mayberry increased the bail of the defendant from $1,500 to $5,000. Cole waived examination and was held for the grand jury. Cole's case was the first to be heard in the Newton District Court since Attorney General Robert T. Bushnell ordered district attorneys to prosecute the theft cases in the lower courts. Cole was arrested on April 16 by Lieut. Daniel Crowley and Sergeant Richard L. Bannon following investigation of the theft of 16 tires, 10 tubes and an automobile from the Newton Buick Co. on March 27. Twelve of the tires and all of the tubes were recovered in Boston. Cole and an alleged accomplice, who is now serving a six months' sentence on a similar charge, are wanted for thefts of tires in Arlington, Somerville and Manchester, New Hampshire, and are also facing prosecution by the Boston police.

The Newton Chapter, Red Cross, started three new canteen courses this week under the direction of Miss Agnes Early, canteen chairman.

Two of the classes have been fully enrolled while there are a few openings in the class to be held at the Central Congregational Church on Wednesday and Friday mornings from 9:30 a. m. to 11:30 a. m. Mrs. Alice Lewis will be the instructor.

Other classes will be at the Congregational Church, Waban, on Tuesday and Thursday mornings, with Mrs. Arnold Barker in charge, and at the West Newton Congregational Church, Monday and Thursday evenings from 7:30 to 9:30 p. m. with Miss Ruth Leavitt instructor.

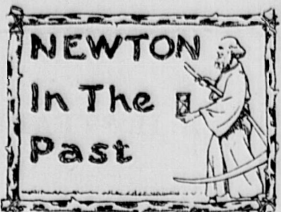

The courses will be for five weeks with a demonstration of canteen work at the conclusion of each.

The latest rumor about the new Eliot church building is that the committee is waiting for news from Rome. According to the deed by which the land was given by John Richardson, the church lot must be surrounded by a fence, and this fact has been discovered since the church was burned. One of the Richardson heirs is at present in Rome, and to prevent trouble an effort is being made to come to an agreement with the heirs, so that this proviso may be disregarded. A fence would certainly not be an ornament to the lot.

A passenger train, consisting of an engine, tender and thirteen passenger cars, passed through West Newton on Sunday. The immense size of this train shows that Sunday trains, on Easter Sunday at any rate, are still popular.

Nonantum is to finally get its house, and all parties have agreed upon the smaller sum mentioned, and work will probably begin in a very short time.

There are rumors that the city and the Boston & Albany are considering the plan of purchasing jointly the land between Washington st. and the railroad, between Newton and the truck house above Newtonville. By clearing off the buildings the railroad could take part of the land and have a gravel embankment with nicely sodded banks, instead of a stone wall, and the city could widen Washington st., which is too narrow now to be safe or convenient for the great amount of travel that daily passes over it. The cost of such a scheme would not be excessive, as there are few buildings of any great value on this section, and most of them could be sold for a fair sum and made over to another location. The widening of Washington st. will have to come some time, and if the city could divide the expense with the railroad company, it would be a good thing for both parties.

The Newton Committee on Public Safety report a most satisfactory response to their appeals for work and money an indication that the patriotic sentiment of this community has been aroused as never before. The great danger at the present time is a growing lack of interest in the work as time goes on. It is usually easy enough in the first burst of enthusiasm, to enlist plenty of assistance, but it is quite another matter to keep interest at a white heat for any extended period of time. With every prospect of months of war conditions in the future, our patriotic fervor ought not to be allowed to cool and should become our habit, rather than a passing impulse.

Mr. Lyman C. Fisher, proprietor of the Newton Opera House, has offered the free use of his theatre on any Sunday night for the benefit of Company C and will extend to members of that Company, in uniform, the courtesies of the house at any time.

Thruout the village of Newton Upper Falls, shine dazzling red posters announcing Red Cross Week. All the churches, lodges and clubs are actively interested. Heretofore there has been nothing to so unite the people, though attempts have been made, but now the democratic principles of this government are standing forth. Success to its efforts.

Capt. Hennrikus To Report May 11

Captain George F. Hennrikus of Company C, 23rd Infantry, Massachusetts State Guard, of Newton, received orders from the War Department Monday night to report for active duty on May 11, to the commanding officer of a newly organized military police battalion of the U. S. Army. He will report at Boston, as a captain.

As a result, he immediately tendered his resignation as commanding officer of the Newton state guard unit. When the resignation is formally approved by the Adjutant General, the command of the company will go, temporarily, to a junior officer, pending the assignment of a new permanent commander.

Word of the impending departure of the popular commander was greeted with sorrow by officers and men of Company C, although all rejoiced that he had been given the opportunity for Federal service. Capt. Hennrikus organized the unit a year ago last February and was chiefly responsible for its present state of efficiency. The captain started his military career in Newton in 1915 and has been identified with every infantry unit to serve in this city ever since. For several years he commanded Company C, 101st Infantry, except for a short time when he commanded Company M, a machine gun unit of the same regiment.

When he leaves, the company will have but two officers, First Lieutenants Leo Taffe and Thomas Hennessey.

Thursday night, Captain Hennrikus lectured before the regimental officers' school at Charles-town on interior guard duty, being assisted by his lieutenants.

The company, at its weekly drill last night, went for a short hike to Newtonville and return. With the advent of warmer weather, it has been expected that the people of Newton would see the unit making practice marches and performing outside maneuvers which are not practical on the armory drill shed floor.

McAdams, directors; Miss Emma D. Coolidge, historian.

A Red Cross canteen luncheon was served under the direction of Mrs. Arnold Barker. Assisting were Mrs. Donald V. Baker, Miss Florence Bacon, Mrs. Frank G. Dennison, Mrs. Harriet Ferris, Mrs. Harry L. Valen, Miss Elizabeth Fuller, Mrs. William Fearning, Mrs. William Hanse, Mrs. William A. Haskell, Mrs. Fredrick A. Woodrough and Mrs. William H. McAdams, directors; Miss Emma D. Coolidge, historian.

The luncheon was the graduation project of the canteen group, which took a 24-hour course under the Newton Chapter, American Red Cross.

THE FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST

In all Christian Science churches, branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts, a Lesson-Sermon will be read Sunday, May 3, on the subject: "Everlasting Punishment."

The Golden Text will be: "The Lord is known by his judgments which he executeth: the wicked is snared in the work of his own hands" (Psalms 9:16). Bible selections will include the following passage: "The night is far spent, the day is at hand; let us therefore cast off the works of darkness, and let us put on the armor of light. Let us walk honestly, as in the day" (Romans 13:12,13). One of the passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, included in the Lesson-Sermon, reads as follows: "Let us remember that the eternal law of right, though it can never annul the law which makes sin its own executioner, exempts man from all penalties but those due for wrong-doings" (p. 385).

Civic Music Assn. Dinner Held

The fourth annual Civic Music Association campaign dinner was held in the First Lutheran Church on Weston st., Waltham, last Monday night with approximately 150 team captains and workers present. Mrs. Frederick P. Flagg, president of the association, stressed the growing importance of music in the national defense program, maintaining that every citizen needed the spiritual strength obtained from music to carry on the work that lies before them. Mrs. Flagg concluded with the announcement that the organization is starting with 300 members, more than on any preceding campaign week opening.

Mayor Arthur A. Hansen declared that "England has come to recognize the value of fine music in building up public morale in wartime. We also must preserve fine music to keep ourselves from being the jitters." He maintained that the concerts made possible to the community by the Civic Music Plan solve an important problem in community morale.

John Bauer, Civic Concert representative from New York City, gave Civic Music 20 years ago and outlined its phenomenal growth since that time and its plan of payment of memberships that keeps the community in which it is established free from debt. The kits were distributed to all workers with material for memberships, and the enthusiasm was manifest in the response already made to the opening day of the membership drive. It was stressed that, as in former years, the campaign would definitely close this Saturday night after which no more memberships would be accepted for another year. There are no single admissions sold to any concert.

COLORS

Colors are blended by Nature
In a very graceful way,
The flowers, the birds and the rainbow
Are clothed in a lovely array.

The Cornflowers bring us loyalty
With their royal shade of blue
The Daffodils breathe cheerfulness
As they don their yellow hue.

The Rainbow embraces all colors
As it arches from sky to earth.
The sun shines while still it is raining
A promise was made at its birth.

The sunsets too are colorful
With pink, and blue and gold,
The sunrise makes a winter morn
Turn warm instead of cold.

The blue of the sky is beautiful
The green of the grass is fine
And Nature with her color schemes
Can make a scene divine.

Maybe your chances of buying a new car are better than you think

Here's clarifying information about the rules on the purchase of new automobiles—and how you can get one if you are eligible.

MORE people are entitled to buy new automobiles under Government rationing regulations than may have been generally realized.

Indeed, if you are eligible to buy a new car, and continue to drive an old and inefficient model, you may actually burn up more gasoline, consume more oil and wear out tires faster than is desirable in the interest of conservation of critical materials and supplies.

The principal groups eligible for the purchase of new cars are as follows:

1. Physicians, surgeons, visiting nurses, veterinarians and regularly practicing ministers of a religious faith, when their cars are used for professional purposes.
2. Persons engaged in fire-fighting services, police services, public health services, mail services or highway construction and maintenance of equipment when cars are used in direct line of duty.
3. Persons furnishing transportation to the public, when the purchase is required in the interest of public safety and convenience.
4. Persons engaged in the prosecution of the war, directly or indirectly, including executives, engineers, technicians and workers. Such cars must be used in transportation to or from or within factories, power plants, transportation or communication facilities, farms, lumber camps, mines, military or naval establishments, when the work done in such place of employment is essential, directly or indirectly, to the prosecution of the war.

Persons transporting produce and supplies to and from a farm when applicant does not own or possess a truck or other practicable means of transportation.

Traveling salesmen, when the car is required in selling foods and medical supplies or machinery and equipment to farms, factories, mines, oil wells, lumber camps or similar productive establishments.

Persons delivering newspapers, when the car is required for wholesale delivery.

The first step in getting a car is to fill out the proper application form, which we will be glad to obtain for you.

It is then necessary only to demonstrate to the local rationing board that your need for a car is bona fide to get a "certificate of purchase" entitling you to immediate delivery on the model of your own selection.

If you have any questions about your eligibility after reading the above list, we will be glad to answer them for you to the best of our ability.

Among the reports from associate organizations was that of the Newton Nursing Association and the new branch called Nursing Service for the smaller business concerns was explained.

The report of the Nominating committee with the slate for the vote at the Annual Meeting was read by Miss Raymond L. Perkins. The meeting was adjourned at eleven o'clock, the retiring president, Mrs. Pearson, wishing each a happy summer, and bespeaking the same loyalty to the new officers that had been extended to her.

Registration of grocers and guests will start at 10:00 a. m., Sunday.

Leo A. Horrigan, President of the Association, with an able corps of assistants representing the independent retail grocers all over the State of Massachusetts, and many of the leading manufacturers in the food field, has whipped up a party upon which national as well as local attention will be centered.

Close to 2,000 independent retail grocers and their wives and friends will be in attendance. Nearly 300 top-notch executives and their representatives in the field of food manufacture and packing, will also be there.

The list of speakers is indeed impressive. Thurman Arnold, "Trust-Busting" Assistant Attorney-General of the United States, will be the key speaker of the Convention, the Banquet on Sunday evening he will deliver an address on "The Perils of Monopoly." His talk will probe into the dangers of monopoly in the food field. Judging from the fire and brimstone heaped on the surface in the past several weeks through Mr. Arnold's investigations, his appearance at the grocers convention and the words he will speak will do much to convince the legitimate interests in the food industry that they have a champion in action as well as in name.

Of extreme importance to the business session of the Convention, will be the address by Senator Joseph C. O'Mahoney of Wyoming. Senator O'Mahoney is senatorial champion of the small business man, and his talk on "The Problems of the Small Business Man in This War Emergency," will be loaded with fighting common sense. Mr. Leo Horrigan, President of the Grocers Association, deserves high praise for his ability to bring these two men of national importance to this Convention, particularly now when so many problems of national significance have crowded into their already too full time. Not alone the grocers, but business men in general throughout New England will share the benefits of the thinking of these two men, and become increasingly aware of their determination to help solve their problems.

The principal speaker at the Sunday luncheon of the Grocers' Convention will be none other than the very capable Gene Flack, Public Relations Counsel of the Loose-Wiles Biscuit Company. The question of public relations is difficult enough in normal times, but becomes multiplied by the thousands in times of stress. The Loose-Wiles Biscuit Company, like many other national manufacturers, is faced with this problem on a national scale, and has considered it of such vital importance that they have assumed the complete sponsorship of the Sunday luncheon so that they might bring to the retail grocers of Massachusetts their thinking on public relations as related to manufacturer and retailer and consumer.

On Sunday afternoon between the hours of 3:30 and 5:30, the wives, sweethearts and friends of the independent retail grocers will have an opportunity to get better acquainted and relax in splendor. Dinnell-Wright Co., packers of White House Tea and Coffee, will sponsor a musical and tea in a setting of the most lovely lady guests. Mrs. Harry Barney, wife of Harry Barney who is President of the Everett Grocers Association, is Chairman of the Ladies Committee.

Following Mr. Arnold's talk, the Grocers Association has arranged for a particularly beautiful and thrilling floor show. This show will be headlined by the Four Ink Spots, singing stars of radio, stage and screen. The Ink Spots will feature some of the sweet songs made famous by the Ink Spots, and will be followed by the lovely lady guests. Mrs. Harry Barney, wife of Harry Barney who is President of the Everett Grocers Association, is Chairman of the Ladies Committee.

Newton Squash and Tennis Club Burns Mortgage on Property Wednesday Eve

The Newton Squash and Tennis Club with a club house and grounds on Commonwealth ave., Newton, celebrated an unusual event for a social and athletic club, when it burned its mortgage at a dinner held on Wednesday evening, April 29, 1942.

The possibilities of a successful athletic club were first recognized in 1934 by Lt. Col. Bernard L. Gorfinke, long a resident of Newton. With the co-operation of Benoit Rockman the bank owners of the property were approached and they agreed to sell the entire establishment for the amount of a mortgage and note. Col. Gorfinke then proceeded to build up a membership of one hundred. With the able assistance of Phillip Bronstein as vice president, Joseph Dietz as treasurer, and I. O. Gorman as secretary, the membership has always been complete.

With a view of some day owning the property free and clear Col. Gorfinke devised an arrangement whereby a portion of each year's dues were directly applied to a reduction of the mortgage. Realizing that a change in conditions would take place with many of its members residing in Newton, the club succeeded in having the members anticipate the small balance due, and today the entire valuable property is free and clear of all debts and obligations.

Not alone has the club given its members the free use of its squash courts and four unsurpassed tennis courts, but it is equipped with every practical type of exercise machine with sanitary shower baths, locker and social rooms.

The club is a member of the Massachusetts Squash Racquets Society and recently was the winner of a class championship. It also is represented in the National Tennis Association and has successfully conducted each year, a Middlesex Bowl Tournament where nationally known tennis stars participate.

During the evening Col. Gorfinke, the first and honorary president, presented a President's Cup on which will be engraved his name as president for the years 1934-5-6; Phillip G. Bronstein, 1937-8; Mark A. Edison, 1939; Raymond Miranda, 1940-1, and Abraham Olansky, 1942.

Among the guests will be Hon. Paul M. Goddard, Mayor of Newton, and Louis Volpe, of the famous Volpe family of squash and tennis stars, who up until the recent enlistment of his son, George, has always had a member of his family as pro and steward.

The celebration committee in charge of the evening program is Col. Bernard L. Gorfinke, general chairman; Phillip G. Bronstein and Raymond Miranda, co-chairmen, together with Dr. George Kahn, Joseph Dietz, Abraham Kahn, Louis Milender, Edward Goodman, Abraham Olansky and I. O. Gorman.

DOS AND DON'TS ON MOPPETT'S FOODS

REMEMBER: How your grown-up "tummy" would feel with a glass of milk, a glass of cold water, a bowl of hot soup and crackers, bread and butter. Then, how would you like someone to "stand over" YOU to insist that you eat a huge meal?

DO: encourage water drinking between meals.

SERVE: enriched or whole wheat bread and butter with the main course toward the end of the meal, milk with dessert, soup and milk with the lighter meal, lunch or supper.

DO: juice with the heavy meal, individual small salads for the child's "very own."

SEASONING

Does your child complain "O! that again!"

DO try a little lemon, orange or onion juice, celery salt, Worcestershire Sauce, or any other tasty seasoning. Well is it known that there is a "feeling" against the seasoning of children's foods. Yet, actual experience has proven that foods properly seasoned are better than unseasoned foods because "they have no taste" and "the same old things again."

REMEMBER: At table bend to your child's eye level, look at his plate. Looks monstrous doesn't it? Small portions eaten and the plate passed again, do more "good" than large gobs thrown out with tears all around.

It often takes only a few minutes to "make" a Food problem child. And months, gray hairs, wrinkles and waiting, before the "reconditioning" takes place. That is the zest and savor for food returns to thrill the child once more.

Cold cereal vs hot cereal. REMEMBER: in the warm months.

DO use your cooked cereals in other ways: muffins, desserts, cookies, breads.

Give your child a "change" too. He will "go back" to his hot cereals with more relish in the colder months.

REMEMBER: Plan to limit instruction in deportment and "table manners" to one rule a meal.

DO explain "table manners" between meals as you would other rules. Then, "don'ting" is taken as just another part of "growing-up." At table "teaching" serves only as an upsetment to the nerves and digestion of all the family. Consider Tired Dad's feelings and plan meal-time as "family-fun time"—not "reforming time!"

Fire Department At Nonantum Fire

A vast quantity of "salvage" was destroyed and a thickly settled neighborhood was threatened by a fire that swept a large barn used as a junk shop at 100 Adams st., Nonantum, early Wednesday morning, causing damage estimated at $1,700.

Because the building was filled with salvaged paper, rags and other combustible materials, the fire proved difficult to extinguish and the firemen worked for five hours before it was finally squelched.

Scores of persons residing nearby were driven out by smoke or aroused by the sound of the fire apparatus. The fire was discovered shortly after midnight by a passerby, when he saw smoke issuing from the structure. He hastened to spread the alarm and met Patrolmen Albert Yanco and William Burke. The latter sounded an alarm from Box 24 at 12:09 A. M. Engines 1, 4 and 8 and Ladders 1 and 3 responded. The firemen toiled over the piles of smoldering waste for five hours, the "all out" being sounded at 5:15 a. m.

The junk shop was conducted by David Meilman of 159 Adams st. and the building was owned by his mother, Mrs. Sarah Meilman. The structure consisted of a large barn with a shed attached. It was only 25 feet from the nearest dwelling.

A fire in an auto owned by Thomas F. Kelly, 60 Elmwood st., Newton, resulted in a call for the Fire Department at 1:42 A. M. Engine 9 of Chestnut Hill was sent to the scene because Engine 1 of Newton Corner was occupied at the time. The auto blaze was quickly checked.

Thief Ransacks Newtonville Home

The home of George A. Edmonds, druggist, of 100 Bulwood park, Newtonville, was ransacked and looted by a burglar Tuesday.

Mrs. Edmonds was not able to ascertain the extent of the loot that had been taken and she planned to compile a list for Sergeant Philip Purcell, who is investigating the case.

Oysters can be eaten any time. In the summer oysters spawn and this accounts for the flat taste. But they won't cause food poisoning unless found in polluted waters.
